 The ambitious role cast for scientists in public affairs has been matched by an equal coyness on the part of scientists to play it Yet in spite of themselves they have been virtually dragged on to the political stage because of their collectivities groups formed over the last four centuries often more fugitive than institutional which have helped modify the human environment thereby enabling men to emancipate themselves from the tyranny of the present and plan for the future The byproducts of such plans from the great botanical gardens to the seed beds of physical scientists like the Ecole Polytechnique have also incubated further ideas about the relation of science and society that are ecumenical in scope Indeed the positivist overtones of the Polytechnique herald the transition from platocracy to technocracy for the technical intelligentsia trained its German
