attraction between Ray and Joan was instantaneous and instantly problematic Yet even the fact that both were married to other people couldn't derail their roller coaster of a romance To the outside world Ray and Joan were happy enormously rich and giving But privately Joan was growing troubled over Ray's temper and dark secret something she was reluctant to publicly reveal Those close to them compared their relationship to that of Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton And yet this volatility paved the way for Joan's transformation into one of the greatest philanthropists of our time A force in the peace movement she produced activist films books and music and ultimately gave away billions of dollars including landmark gifts to the Salvation Army and NPR Together the two stories form a compelling portrait of the twentieth century a story of big business big love and big giving
