Diving Deep Into Nonfiction, Grades 6-12 Jeffrey D. Wilhelm, Michael W.

Smith,2016-09-30 All nonfiction is a conversation between writer and reader an invitation to agree or disagree with compelling and often provocative ideas With Diving Deep Into Nonfiction Jeffrey Wilhelm and Michael Smith deliver a revolutionary teaching framework that helps students read well by noticing Topics and the textual conversation Key details Varied nonfiction genres Text structure The classroom tested lessons include engaging short excerpts and teach students to be powerful readers who know both how authors signal what s worth noticing in a text and how readers connect and make meaning of what they have noticed Resources in Education ,1994 Teacher as Activator of Learning Gayle H. Gregory,2016-02-11 Flip the Switch How to Get Students Into Learning Mode Now In his well known meta analysis John Hattie suggests that facilitating learning is not as effective or powerful as activating learning In this book Gayle Gregory shows you how to facilitate better and deeper learning Packed with practical strategies that teachers can use every day to increase student achievement you will also discover what educational neuroscience says about nurturing a growth mindset and creating classrooms that support and encourage students to take risks and fail forward Learn how to Foster student dialogue and thinking Orchestrate productive reflective flexible student groups Develop respectful learning relationships between and among students and teachers Teacher competencies and clarity related to student goals and success criteria with quality feedback are essential for student success This resource will enrich learning environments for students and increase the chance of success for all In going from teachers as fount of knowledge to teacher as facilitator the field has overcorrected Gayle Gregory corrects all that with a comprehensive and deep portrayal of the need for teachers to be activators of learning in partnership with students Based on equal measure of research and practice Gregory gives is a compelling set of ideas and tools to maximize student learning and engagement Read it and hit the ground running Michael Fullan Professor Emeritus OISE University of Toronto Systemic School Improvement Interventions in South Africa Godwin Khosa,2014-04-14 Looking at two smaller scale systemic school improvement projects implemented in selected district circuits in the North West and Eastern Cape by partnerships between government JET Education Services and private sector organisations this book captures and reflects on the experiences of the practitioners involved The Systemic School Improvement Model developed by JET to address an identified range of interconnected challenges at district school classroom and household level is made up of seven components In reflecting on what worked and what did not in the implementation of these different components the different chapters set out some of the practical lessons learnt which could be used to improve the design and implementation of similar education improvement projects Many of the lessons in this field that remain under recorded to date relate to the step by step processes followed the relationship dynamics encountered at different levels of the education system and the local realities confronting schools and districts in South Africa s rural areas Drawing on field data that is often not available to researchers the book endeavours to address this gap and record these lessons It is not intended to provide an academic review of the systemic school improvement projects It is presented rather to offer other development practitioners working to improve the quality of education in South African schools an understanding of some of the real practical and logistical challenges that arise and how these may be resolved to take further school improvement projects forward at a wider district provincial and national scale
