Is There Anyone Here from Education? AnnMarie Wolpe, James Donald, 1983      Within School Walls AnnMarie Wolpe, 2012-05-16 Drawing from her in depth ethnographic study of a London comprehensive school the author shows how gender formation for both girls and boys is mediated by disciplinary control sexuality and the curriculum Her findings for girls and boys with their important emphases are revealed So are the responses and perspectives of the teachers Prior to publication of this volume much feminist writing depicted the subordination of girls as a function of patriarchal control both in terms of the teaching the girls receive and the behaviour of the boys around them The author s narrative implicitly and explicitly challenges some of these views      Popular Culture, Educational Discourse, and Mathematics Peter M. Appelbaum, 1995-04-26 This groundbreaking book analyzes contemporary education discourse in the light of curriculum politics and popular culture using sources ranging from academic scholarship to popular magazines music video film and television game shows Mathematics is used as an extreme case since it is a discipline so easily accepted as separable from politics ethics or the social construction of knowledge Appelbaum s juxtaposition of popular culture public debate and professional practice enables an examination of the production and mediation of common sense distinctions between school mathematics and the world outside of schools Terrain ordinarily displaced or excluded by traditional education literature becomes the pendulum for a new conversation which merges research and practice while discarding pre conceived categories of understanding The book also serves as an entertaining introduction to emerging theories in cultural studies progressively illustrating the uses of discourse analysis for comprehending ideology the implications of power knowledge links professional practice as a technology of power and curriculum as at once commodities and cultural resources In this way Appelbaum effectively reveals a direction for teachers students and researchers to cooperatively form a community attentive to the politics of curriculum and popular culture      Education Under Siege Stanley Aronowitz, Henry A. Giroux, 1993-08-30 Cultural differences are not asserted through the specificity of dominant notions of race gender and class but through a commitment to expanding dialogue and exchange across cultural lines as part of a wider attempt to deepen and develop democratic public life This revised edition of the 1985 best seller speaks eloquently to the need to attend to ever present inequalities of education in the light of new political correctness technology and curricula
