Islam's Mandate: A Tribute to Jihad Mr. Pat, 2010-09-27 This work is based on the religion of Islam and the fundamental Muslims who live by Islamic Sharia law and associate themselves with Sunni Islam or the Shi'a philosophy of the 6th imam. Islam's Mandate separates 80 % of the Muslim ummah family who live in Third World countries who cannot read or write from the radical world of Islam as well as others who continue to associate themselves with the Muslim family but have strayed from the teachings of Muhammad and are less than Islam's Muslim in their way of life. In the book the author deals with 1500 year old beliefs of the fundamentalist Islam's true Muslim. The questions asked and answered are what is the true nature of Islam and who are the real Islam Muslims in the mosques who stay hidden behind closed doors. Those who must defend against radical Islam must take them time to understand the Jihadist. It is time America pulls its head out of Muslim sand that is soaked with blood from 1500 years of Islamic aggression and deals with the reality of what was once an oppressed tribal cult in the Arabian Desert but is now a dominating brutal and repressive theocracy spreading to every corner of this planet.

Muslims and Islam in U.S. Education Liz Jackson, 2014-04-03 Winner of Philosophy of Education Society of Australasia PESA's inaugural PESA Book Awards in 2015 and The University of Hong Kong Research Output Prize for Education 2014-15. Muslims and Islam in U.S. Education explores the complex interface that exists between U.S. school curriculum teaching practice about religion in public schools, societal and teacher attitudes toward Islam and Muslims and multiculturalism as a framework for meeting the needs of minority group students. It presents multiculturalism as a concept that needs to be rethought and reformulated in the interest of creating a more democratic, inclusive and informed society. Islam is an under-considered religion in American education due in part to the fact that Muslims represent a very small minority of the population today, less than 1%. However, this group faces a crucial challenge of representation in United States society as a whole as well as in its schools. Muslims in the United States are impacted by ignorance that news and opinion polls have demonstrated is widespread among the public in the last few decades. U.S. citizens who do not have a balanced, fair and accurate view of Islam can make a variety of decisions in the voting booth, in job hiring and within their small scale but important personal networks and spheres of influence that make a very negative impact on Muslims in the United States. This book presents new information that has implications for curricula, religious education and multicultural education today, examining the unique case of Islam in U.S. education over the last 20 years. Chapters include Perspectives on Multicultural Education, 9/11, the Media and the New Need to Know Islam and Muslims in Public Schools, Blazing a Path for Intercultural Education. This book is an essential resource for professors, researchers and teachers of social studies, particularly those involved with multicultural issues, critical and sociocultural analysis of education and schools as well as interdisciplinary scholars and students in anthropology and education.
