Islamic Movements of Europe Frank Peter, Rafael Ortega, 2014-09-08 Islam in Europe and Islamophobia are subjects of vital global importance which currently preoccupy policy makers and academics alike Through the examination of various European Muslim groups and institutions that have branched off from Islamic movements including the Muslim Brotherhood Hizb ut Tahrir and Jama at i Islami this book outlines the configuration of social political and religious processes that have given rise to new kinds of European Muslim organisations The authors offer a new perspective on these Muslim groups and seek to reclaim them from the often highly charged public debates by placing them within the context of their origins as politicised religious movements on the one hand and their ongoing incorporation into European societal structures on the other They also consider the relationship of these organisations to their parent movements and examine the presence of Islam in European education and higher education institutions Taking into account the connection between Islamic movements and the perceived surge of Islamophobia in Europe this book does not debate the question of whether these groups fit into normative or cultural structures of European nation states but rather examines how these structures have changed through their interaction with these groups and the growing Muslim population within Europe It does not consider political Islam as the antithesis to a refined notion of secularism but as a form of public religion which contributes to the ever changing structure of Europe s secular regimes Featuring the work of more than 40 scholars from around the world this is the comprehensive guide to Islamic movements in Europe offering original definitive perspectives on Muslims and Islam in Europe today It will be essential reading for policy makers political commentators and scholars alike structure of Europe's secular regimes Featuring the work of more than 40 scholars from around the world this is the comprehensive guide to Islamic movements in Europe offering original definitive perspectives on Muslims and Islam in Europe today It will be essential reading for policy makers political commentators and scholars alike     The Contemporary British Mosque Abdul-Azim Ahmed,2024-03-21 Repositioning mosques as social cultural and political spaces this book provides new insights on key contemporary debates the religious identity of Britain secularisation the far right and terrorism and gender equality Exploring the story of the British mosque from house conversions to grand works of architecture and the role they play in public life Abdul Azim Ahmed details the establishment of early mosques during the era of Empire and the rapid growth in the years following the Second World War Ahmed takes a sociological approach to this study drawing on fieldwork and ethnographic case studies alongside reviews of databases and historical documents to provide perspectives on the British mosque from the congregants themselves The Muslim congregation a poorly understood and often overlooked dimension of religion in Britain is examined and issues of diversity denomination sacredness and society are explored

Political Islam, World Politics and Europe Bassam Tibi,2008-03-25 This book is concerned with political Islam and in particular the global challenges posed by Islamists and Jihadists     Rediscovering the Umma Ina Merdjanova,2016 This book discusses the role of Islam in the political and social developments in the Balkans after the fall of communism It explores comparatively the transformations of Muslim identities under the influence of various national and transnational domestic and global factors     Western European Studies Eva Martin Sartori,1990     The Pro-Israel Lobby in Europe Elvira King,2016-03-02 The activities of pro Israel pressure groups and lobbyists in the US are well known But the pro Israel lobby in Europe is less prominent in both academic and media accounts In a unique account Elvira King identifies the pro Israeli groups which attempt to influence policy makers and implementers in the EU specifically examining Christian Zionist groups Through a detailed study of the European Coalition for Israel ECI the only Christian Zionist lobby in Brussels Elvira King analyses whether and how a religious group can and can fail to influence decision makers in the EU By exploring the context of European relations with Israel as well as the mechanisms through which pressure groups are able to influence EU wide policies King offers an analysis which demonstrates how the EU can be a site where religion and politics meet rather than just being a secular institution It therefore contains vital primary research for both those interested in the pro Israel lobby as well as those examining the role of religion in politics more generally     Yearbook of International
