Applying the degree of urbanisation — A methodological manual to define cities, towns and rural areas for international comparisons European Union, UN-Habitat, World Bank, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2021-03-11 Applying the Degree of Urbanisation A methodological manual to define cities towns and rural areas for international comparisons has been produced in close collaboration by six organisations the European Commission the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO the United Nations Human Settlements Programme UNHabitat the International Labour Organization ILO the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD and The World Bank This manual develops a harmonised methodology to facilitate international statistical comparisons and to classify the entire territory of a country along an urban rural continuum The degree of urbanisation classification defines cities towns and semi dense areas and rural areas This first level of the classification may be complemented by a range of more detailed concepts such as metropolitan areas commuting zones dense towns semi dense towns suburban or peri urban areas villages dispersed rural areas and mostly uninhabited areas The manual is intended to complement and not replace the definitions used by national statistical offices NSOs and ministries It has been designed principally as a guide for data producers suppliers and statisticians so that they have the necessary information to implement the methodology and ensure coherency within their data collections It may also be of interest to users of subnational statistics so they may better understand interpret and use official subnational statistics for taking informed decisions and policymaking

Sustainability Impact Assessment of Land Use Changes Katharina Helming, Marta Pérez-Soba, Paul Tabbush, 2008-06-11 There are many reasons why strategic intelligence is required to support policy decisions These primarily stem from the nature of today s knowledge society with two contrasting trends On the one hand there is a trend of increasing human intelligence in the economic social and political systems On the other hand there is a trend towards dissolving certainties about the problems and solutions of today s society Clearly more information does not necessarily imply more certainties on how to act What is more the same facts are often interpreted in markedly different ways the same policy relevant information can and often does result in conflicting framing of a problem by different stakeholders This is mainly due to competing assumptions rather than because of inconsistent facts Therefore it is not surprising that policy makers are calling for strategic intelligence to support their understanding of today s challenges including the relevant aspects of science and technology their impact and their possible future developments Over the last 15 years Europe has rapidly adopted the practice of dev oping and using Impact Assessment IA tools to support decision making Formal procedures and guidance for IA are well established within the European Commission and in most EU Member States The adoption of IA procedures alone however does not guarantee that every policy domain is actually using the full potential of these assessment tools in the preparation of policies and legislation

American Jennie: The Remarkable Life of Lady Randolph Churchill Anne Sebba,2010-12-20 A frank account of the tempestuous life of the American mother of Britain s most important twentieth century politician Brooklyn born Jennie Jerome married into the British aristocracy in 1874 after a three day romance She became Lady Randolph Churchill wife of a maverick politician and mother of the most famous British statesman of the century Jennie Churchill was not merely the most talked about and controversial American woman in London society she was a dynamic behind the scenes political force and a woman of sexual fearlessness at a time when women were not supposed to be sexually liberated A concert pianist magazine founder and editor and playwright she was also above all a devoted mother to Winston In American Jennie Anne Sebba draws on newly discovered personal correspondences and archives to examine the unusually powerful mutual infatuation between Jennie and her son and to relate the passionate and ultimately tragic career of the woman whom Winston described as having the wine of life in her veins
