Mattas Restuarant Tacos Recipe:

The Taste of Nostalgia Amy Cox Hall, 2024-11-26 An exploration of gender race and food in Peru in the 1950s and 1960s and today From the late 1940s to the mid 1960s Peru s rapid industrialization and anti communist authoritarianism coincided with the rise of mass produced cookbooks the first televised cooking shows glossy lifestyle magazines and imported domestic appliances and foodstuffs Amy Cox Hall s The Taste of Nostalgia uses taste as a thematic and analytic thread to examine the ways that women race and the kitchen were foundational to Peruvian longings for modernity both during the Cold War and today Drawing on interviews personal stories media images and archival and ethnographic research Cox Hall considers how elite European descended women and the urban home were central to Peru s modernizing project and finds that all women who labored within the deeply racialized and gendered world of food helped set the stage for a Peruvian food nationalism that is now global in the twenty first century Cox Hall skillfully connects how the sometimes unsavory tastes of the past are served again in today s profitable and pervasive gastronostalgia that helps sell Peru and its cuisine both at home and abroad

Food Identities at Home and on the Move Raul Matta, Charles-Edouard de Suremain, Chantal Crenn, 2020-06-08 How does food restore the fragmented world of migrants and the displaced What similar processes are involved in challenging maintaining or reinforcing divisions between groups coexisting in the same living place Food Identities at Home and on the Move examines how home is negotiated around food in the current worldwide context of uncertainty mobility and displacement Drawing on empirical approaches to heritage identity and migration studies the contributors analyse the relationship between food and the various understandings of home and dwelling With case studies on sushi around the world food as heritage in the Afghan diaspora and Mexican foodways in Chicago these chapters offer novel readings on the convergence of food and migration studies the anthropology of space and place and the field of mobility by focusing on how entangled stories of food and home are put on display for constructing the present and imagining the future Cookbooks by Small Presses Paula Matta, 1988 Routledge Handbook of Food and Cultural Heritage Michael A. Di Giovine, Raúl Matta, 2025-09-24 The Routledge Handbook of Food and Cultural Heritage explores the many varied intersections of food and cultural heritage from a robust transdisciplinary perspective Innovative in its approach this cutting edge Handbook thinks beyond traditional boundaries to present unique perspectives on the myriad ways in which food and cultural heritage are entangled in theory and practice Both are growing industries both are deeply rooted in families cultures and societies both generate controversy and are deployed for political and economic activism They also both have intellectual lives of their own and are centers of interdisciplinary fields themselves yet they also intersect in interesting and until this book under theorized ways After a comprehensive introduction that presents and challenges the state of the art in the disciplines of critical food and critical heritage studies the Handbook s chapters are divided into six themes common to both fields Ontologies and epistemologies of food and cultural heritage material culture identity placemaking and belonging politics and regulation tourism development and heritage management and contemporary issues and emerging approaches To give representation of voices not usually heard in the scholarly tradition special interviews with food and heritage practitioners complement the comprehensive chapters adding further depth to the volume through their own lived experiences With contributions from nearly 50 internationally recognized scholars social scientists dieticians practitioners and activists this book is essential reading to scholars students researchers industry professionals and practitioners looking to understand the complex and compelling ways in which food foodways and cultural heritage overlap and impact each other providing venues for collaborations
