Amaral, Tim Bliss, Karen Duff, John O'Keefe, 2024-11 Known to be important for memory the hippocampus has long been a prime focus for neuroscience research This second edition of The Hippocampus Book is written by experts in a wide range of disciplines with new chapters summarizing how disorders of hippocampal function contribute to neurological and psychiatric conditions The editors draw on their experience in hippocampal anatomy physiology cognitive neuroscience and disease pathobiology to weave together an authoritative book which will interest those working in numerous neuroscientific disciplines

Transitional Justice and Peacebuilding on the Ground Chandra Lekha Sriram, 2013 This book seeks to refine our understanding of transitional justice and peacebuilding and long term security and reintegration challenges after violent conflicts As recent events following political change during the so called Arab Spring demonstrate demands for accountability often follow or attend conflict and political transition While traditionally much literature and many practitioners highlighted tensions between peacebuilding and justice recent research and practice demonstrates a turn away from the supposed peace vs justice dilemma This volume examines the complex relationship between peacebuilding and transitional justice through the lenses of the increased emphasis on victim centred approaches to justice and the widespread practices of disarmament demobilization and reintegration DDR of excombatants While recent volumes have sought to address either DDR or victim centred approaches to justice none has sought to make connections between the two much less to place them in the larger context of the increasing linkages between transitional justice and peacebuilding This book will be of great interest to students of transitional justice peacebuilding human rights war and conflict studies security studies and IR
