Strategic Occidentalism Ignacio M. Sanchez Prado, 2018-08-15 Strategic Occidentalism examines the transformation in both aesthetics and infrastructure of Mexican fiction since the late 1970s During this time a framework has emerged characterized by the corporatization of publishing a frictional relationship between Mexican literature and global book markets and the desire of Mexican writers to break from dominant models of national culture In the course of this analysis Ignacio M Sanchez Prado engages with theories of world literature proposing that world literature is a construction produced at various levels including the national that must be studied from its material conditions of production in specific sites In particular he argues that Mexican writers have engaged in a strategic Occidentalism in which their idiosyncratic connections with world literature have responded to dynamics different from those identified by world systems or diffusionist theorists Strategic Occidentalism identifies three scenes in which a cosmopolitan aesthetics in Mexican world literature has been produced Sergio Pitol's translation of Eastern European and marginal British modernist literature the emergence of the Crack group as a polemic against the legacies of magical realism and the challenges of writers like Carmen Boullosa Cristina Rivera Garza and Ana Garc a Bergua to the roles traditionally assigned to Latin American writers in world literature EL LÉXICO DEL NORTE DE LA NAVEGACIÓN DE ANTONIO DE GAZTAÑETA SAN MATEO VALDEHITA Alicia ,2018-07-30 La publicaci n de El l xico del Norte de la navegaci n de Antonio de Gazta eta se enmarca dentro del proyecto de investigaci n L xico y gram tica en el siglo XVII Edici n y estudio ling stico de textos t cnicos de navegaci n y astronom a FF12012 36768 2012 2016 financiado por la Directora General de Investigaci n Cient fica y T cnica del Ministerio de Econom a y Competitividad MINECO Es una de las obras que enriquecer el Diccionario de la navegaci n en espa ol del Siglo de Oro DINESO que cuenta con el apoyo del Instituto di Ling stica Computazionale ILC del Italian National Research Council CNR de Pisa Italia Transcultural Encounters amongst Women Gabrielle Carty, Patricia O'Byrne, 2010-05-11 Traditionally women have found recourse in artistic means to interrogate change and upheaval This volume explores the experiences of women from Spain Portugal and Latin America in the twentieth and twenty first centuries who themselves have crossed cultural boundaries or have described this experience in their literature and film Areas investigated in this collection of essays include the experience of the exiled or the immigrant and their personal or collective response to displacement and adaptation the transcultural potential of cyberspace for women how patterns and styles of the fashion industry have crossed borders how women have crossed canonical cultural boundaries in search of identity and meaning how global cultural influences have manifested in Hispanic and Lusophone cultural practices and production by or about women and the challenging question of whether canine writing can be considered a branch of feminist theory Common to most of the essays are the central issues of identity values conflict and interconnectedness and an analysis of the patterns that result from the transcultural encounter of these aspects Subverting Sex, Gender, and Genre in Cuban and Mexican Detective Fiction

Ailsa Peate, 2024-09-25 The presence of bodies and sex in detective fiction has been a long term feature of this internationally popular genre Titillation is at the centre of narratives reliant upon discovery and revelation motives and criminals are slowly revealed along with sexualized and violated bodies from femmes fatales to the corpses of victims A satisfying gratifying genre for its readership the detective novel promises the disruption and subsequent restoration of order in societies tarnished by disillusionment which hope for a better future This book takes as its focus examples of detective fiction from Cuba and Mexico during or in the aftermath of huge social upheaval the Special Period and the War on Drugs analyzing representations of sexualities bodies and the genre itself Through an investigation of novels by Leonardo Padura and Amir Valle of Cuba and Belfrag and Rogelio Guedea of Mexico this work investigates increasingly fluid sexualities and bodies in challenging examples of metaphysical detective fiction a particularly anxious subgenre which challenges both the structures and limits of the detective novel and the reader's understanding of true and false and right and wrong representative of troubling periods of severe social disruption for Cuba and Mexico Medicine, Power, and the Authoritarian Regime in Hispanic Literature Oscar A. Pérez, 2021-12-30 This book offers a substantial examination of how contemporary authors deal with the complex legacies of authoritarian regimes in various Spanish speaking countries It does so by focusing on works that explore an under studied aspect the reliance of authoritarian power on medical notions for political purposes From the Porfirian regime in Mexico to Castro's Cuba this book describes how such regimes have sought to seize medical knowledge to support propagandistic ideas and marginalize their opponents in ways that transcend specific pathologies political ideologies and geographical and temporal boundaries Medicine Power and the Authoritarian Regime in Hispanic Literature brings together the work of literary scholars cultural critics and historians of medicine arguing that contemporary authors have actively challenged authoritarian narratives of medicine and disease In doing so they continue to re-examine the place of these regimes in the collective memory of Latin America and Spain Guatemala-Honduras Boundary Arbitration Guatemala, 1932 Crime Scenes Charlotte Lange, Ailsa Peate, 2019 Crime fiction has become a key element in Latin American literature The rise in production of the genre can be explained by an urgency to explore issues of morality in societies which incorporate varying levels of censorship and corruption Through a focus on the concept of the crime scene itself this book identifies and interrogates some of the principal developments in contemporary Latin American crime fiction In ten chapters which cover Argentina Chile Colombia Costa Rica Cuba Mexico and Venezuela and generic diversity which spans police procedurals narcoliteratura postmodern detection and historical portrayals of crimes the authors investigate how the crime scene which has always been central to the genre and its subgenres critiques local and global issues including social injustice discrimination neoliberalism violence identity corruption and memory Viaje al Polo Sur Otto Nordenskjöld, 1905 Bulletin - Agricultural Experiment Station, Río Piedras University of Puerto Rico (Río Piedras Campus). Agricultural Experiment Station, 1903 Diccionario enciclopédico hispano-americano de literatura, ciencias y
