Substance Abuse: Administrative Issues in Outpatient Treatment (TIP 46) U.S. Department of Health and Human Services,2019-11-23 The primary audience for this TIP is administrators of outpatient substance abuse treatment programs A few words about this audience are in order Whereas TIP 8 addressed intensive outpatient treatment the current TIP drops the word intensive from its title because the consensus panel hopes that this TIP will find an audience beyond administrators of IOT programs Most of the concepts and guidelines included in this TIP apply to the administration of all substance abuse outpatient treatment OT programs On those rare occasions when information applies only to IOT programs the authors have been sure to make this clear Although the term administrator is used most often to describe the audience for this book the terms executive and director appear as well and are used interchangeably with administrator These overlapping terms emphasize the varied roles and responsibilities that administrators assume

The Matrix Model for Teens and Young Adults Therapist Manual Matrix Institute, 2007-09-30 The Matrix Model for Teens and Young Adults Therapist Manual Drug Problems Richard Isralowitz, Richard Rawson, Mohamed Afifi, 2002-01-30 Substance abuse and its social consequences are a major public concern for communities throughout the world The motivations and consequences are deeply imbedded within the social and political structures of all countries whether they be well established democracies or developing nations Every culture shapes the meaning of and responses to substances such as marijuana and heroin over time and across locations but the broader drug issue has become universal As the sphere of the problem expands the experiences and solutions of each nation become more relevant to other countries International concern over substance abuse has intensified as a result of the rise in production use and trafficking of illicit drugs all over the world Therefore the practical knowledge of policy development and abuse prevention and treatment strategies in the Middle East have increasing relevance for the rest of the world

The Matrix Model for Teens and Young Adults The Family Unit Manual, 2007-10-30 The Matrix Model for Teens and Young Adults The Family Unit Manual Conducting Multiple Site Evaluations in Real-World Settings James M. Herrell, 2002-07-22 In the past decade interest in multisite evaluation has grown but there is still not a substantial literature on the issues involved in conducting evaluations in multiple sites There are however a number of threads that readers may be interested in pursuing The literature on clinical trials increasingly contains references to conducting multicenter clinical trials Cluster evaluation is an approach to multisite evaluation that has been developed by the W K Kellogg Foundation for improving the evaluation of certain foundation initiatives The studies described in this volume represent an approach to multisite evaluation that has much in common with the clinical trials tradition However it shares with cluster evaluation an appreciation for the adjustments that are necessary to reflect the realities of conducting evaluation research in actual service settings This is the 94th issue of the quarterly report New Directions for Evaluation
