Global Chinese Cinema Gary D. Rawnsley, Ming-Yeh T. Rawnsley, 2011-09 Director Zhang Yimou's film Hero released in 2002 is widely regarded as the first globally successful indigenous Chinese blockbuster touching on key questions of Chinese culture, nation and politics. This book explores the reasons for the film's popularity with its audiences and provides fascinating insights into recent developments in Chinese society, popular culture and cultural production. Translingual Creative Writing Theory, Practice, and Pedagogy Jennifer Quist, 2025-05-15 In a challenge to monolingual Anglophone dominated creative writing workshops, this book explores why and how students' multilingual backgrounds and lack of fluency with the English language can emerge as assets rather than impediments to artistry and creativity. Grounded in the Chinese tradition of Daoism as an ongoing discourse, this exploration uses rigorous academic readings of the philosophical text the Zhuangzi as an analytical framework and takes a translingual approach to writing where translation and composition intersect, inscribing one language upon another within a single text. With concepts that resist expression such as inspiration, uncertainty, non-knowing, spontaneity, unity, forgetting the self and the perfection behind the imperfection of language, Jennifer Quist demonstrates how Daoism's theories and metalanguage can re-imagine creative writing education whilst de-naturalizing the authority of English and Euro-American literary traditions. With analytical lenses derived from East Asia, given context through translations of Chinese educators' primary accounts of the history and theory of postsecondary creative writing education in 21st century China, Quist develops a method for examining the practices of exemplary translingual writers from China, Japan and their diasporas. Featuring translingual writing prompts and practices for individual or classroom use by students at all levels of multilingualism, Translingual Creative Writing Theory, Practice and Pedagogy opens up the current workshop model and discloses the possibilities of linguistic transcendence for instructors and students. With writing strategies based in cross-cultural collaboration and balanced with the Anglicization of creative writing pedagogy, this book calls to rework the structures, methods and metaphors of the workshop and presents ideas for more collaborative, collective, equitable, diverse and inclusive programs. In Unnamed Wisconsin John Nelson Davidson, 1894 A New English

Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, 1908 China on Screen Christopher J. Berry, Mary Ann Farquhar, 2006-04-04 In China on Screen, Chris Berry and Mary Farquhar, leaders in the field of Chinese film studies, explore more than one hundred years of Chinese cinema and nation. Providing new perspectives on key movements, themes and filmmakers, Berry and Farquhar analyze the films of a variety of directors and actors including Chen Kaige, Zhang Yimou, Hou Hsiao Hsien, Bruce Lee, Jackie Chan, Maggie Cheung, Gong Li, Wong Kar-wai and Ang Lee. They argue for the abandonment of national cinema as an analytic tool and propose cinema and the national as a more productive framework. With this approach, they show how movies from China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora construct and contest different ideas of Chinese nation as empire, republic or ethnicity and are complicated by gender, class, style, transnationalism and more Among the issues and themes covered are the tension between operatic and realist modes male and female star images transnational production and circulation of Chinese films the image of the good foreigner all related to different ways of imagining nation Comprehensive and provocative China on Screen is a crucial work of film analysis A History of Modern Chinese Popular Literature Boqun Fan, 2020-07-30 The first English translation of one of the most authoritative and significant studies in the field of modern Chinese literature An index to periodical literature. 4th suppl., Jan.1, 1897- Jan.1, 1902, by W.I.
