ENDORSEMENTS As a former school counselor and school administrator my view about compassionate leadership is one grounded in relational practice This may be obvious to some but unfortunately lost on many This thoughtful volume edited by Kara Lasater and Kristina LaVenía explores a desperately needed reformulation of school leadership for our times. Compassionate leadership takes enormous courage because it works against much of the institutional ethos that forms and frames the role, thinking and behaviors of those ostensibly charged to both manage and lead schools. William C. Frick, University of Oklahoma. The education system is in its most challenging period in decades, perhaps in the past century. The need now is to address student staff and organizational suffering. Lasater and LaVenía et al. offer antidotes in this volume by providing up-to-date research, theory and insight to cultivate, conceptualize and practice compassionate educational leadership. For those who teach and lead with their heart, this book is essential reading. Joseph A. Polizzi, Sacred Heart University. In an increasingly challenging educational landscape, leaders find themselves facing teacher shortages, student trauma and learning loss. Schools could easily become institutions rife with secondary trauma and burned-out professionals operating in stark contrast to the unifying motivations that drew each of us into this profession. This volume reminds us that among the many skill sets, leaders must employ organizational and leader compassion. It fulfills a fundamental human need and unlocks a means by which schools can transform from professional survival to the joyful work of changing lives for the better. Joshua Ray, Greenwood Public Schools.
