WARNING: Review the carrying capacity of your tow vehicle with the trailer you will be towing. You should not exceed the gross vehicle weight rating of the trailer (GVWR). Consult your hitch and tow vehicle manufacturers with any questions before you tow your trailer. You are responsible for the selection of your tow vehicle and trailer. Do not exceed the tow or cargo capacity of your tow vehicle, and remember that the GVWR relates to towing capacity and does not necessarily include braking capacity. Do not overload your trailer with additional cargo or tank fluids to exceed the GVWR of the trailer. Do not load your trailer so that it is unbalanced from front to rear or from side to side. You should clearly understand how your particular tow vehicle capacities are calculated. It also sure your tow vehicle is not only rated for your intended usage and pay particular attention to suspension components, tires and tire pressure. We remind you use safety devices and weight distribution hitches with all Jayco towable products. Many states have lower speed limits required with the tow vehicle/trailer combination. Obey all traffic laws and use your knowledge of all the no passing laws and that you should not exceed 55 MPH when towing a trailer. Consult an expert for specific driver education when towing a trailer. There are private RV driving schools and some RV clubs offer driving seminars as part of their club activities. Recreation vehicle publications and the Internet can be a source of information regarding RV driver education and discuss any topics to help you learn to safely use your recreation vehicle.
