Shade of Green Johann Bernhardt, 2008 It is estimated that the building sector uses roughly half of all the energy generated in this country a very high proportion of materials and creates huge volumes of landfill wastes This means that to make a difference we need to look at how we build how we can reduce energy use and costs how we future proof our buildings and minimise their carbon footprint This book is the first comprehensive step in providing assistance for all of us to make a difference to our environment and to lead more comfortable cost efficient and sustainable lives within the buildings we inhabit

Environment and Children Christopher Day, Anita Midbjer, 2007-08-31 How does the built environment affect children their health their behaviour education and development To support them what do we need to consider and what do we need to do Can our surroundings foster environmental and social awareness and responsibility Based on Christopher Day's experiences designing schools and early childhood centres in the United States and Britain this groundbreaking book sets out to answer these questions and to offer solutions Children all too often find themselves living in alien surroundings designed with the needs of adults in mind cut off not just from the natural environment but also childhood itself Society's reaction to cocoon children from the outside world or to resort to drugs to control behaviour fails to address the fundamental causes of problems which lie in the environment not the children themselves One of the world's leading thinkers on the impact of buildings on people Christopher Day's insights offer new light on one of the most important issues for today's society

Design and Planning of Swimming Pools John Dawes, 1979 Natural Swimming Pools David Pagan Butler, 2011-01 Natural swimming pools are kept clean by plants not chemicals and are healthy environments for both people and wildlife David Pagan Butler takes you through two projects step by step The first one is how to build a plunge pool an ideal nature reserve that you can swim in too The second part shows you how to make a much larger natural swimming pool
