L'enseignement Des Faits Religieux Dans Les Manuels D'histoire:

L'enseignement des faits religieux dans les manuels d'histoire Véronique Deneuche, 2012-04-01 Cet ouvrage étudie le fait religieux et l'évolution de son enseignement depuis 1957 nos jours au travers des programmes et manuels de sixième et de cinquième. La forme des manuels porte parole des programmes de l'enseignement scolaire affecte-elle leurs contenus notamment doctrinaux en ce qui concerne la présentation des trois monothésismes ? L'enseignement des faits religieux dans les manuels d'histoire du collège, sous la Vème République Véronique Deneuche, 2010 L'enseignement des faits religieux à l'école est l'objet de débats récurrents tant dans la société que dans l'institution. Les programmes d'histoire donnent une place importante au fait religieux et suscitent une importante réflexion sur le sujet. Les manuels en sont les porte-parole avec des degrés de liberté divers selon les collections et les années. Programmes et manuels sont les sources choisies pour étudier le fait religieux et voir les évolutions de son enseignement. Le choix se est porté sur les manuels de sixième et de cinquième qui proposent aux élèves les trois monothésismes dans leur contexte de laboration et ce depuis le début du siècle. Afin de représenter les continuités et les discontinuités une longue période est définie : les programmes depuis 1957 nos jours concernent le collège unique et couvrent la période de la Vème République. Il s'agit de voir la fois les évolutions des programmes et la fois les évolutions des manuels dont la forme en raison des présentations successives connaît de grands changements. Ces changements sont liés à la place grandissante accordée aux documents tant textuels qu'iconographiques, relais des textes auteurs et supports de validation des savoirs dans les exercices proposés. La mise en activité de l'élève elle aussi évolue selon les programmes. Les contenus apportés soit par les textes auteurs soit par les documents sont analysés. L'objectif de la recherche est de voir si la forme des manuels affecte le fond des contenus notamment doctrinaux en ce qui concerne la présentation des trois monothésismes. Peut-on parler des religions à l'école ? Isabelle Saint-Martin, 2019-09-04 En 2002 le rapport Debray affirmait l'importance de reconnaître et d'enseigner le fait religieux. Pourtant plus de quinze ans après alors que la question a resurgi avec les attentats de 2015 le sujet revient chance de guillemet dans les discours politiques et l'on s'affronte encore sur les manières de s'y prendre ou sur le risque d'une atteinte à la laïcité. Au-delà de la chronique du débat sur l'enseignement des faits religieux l'ouvrage propose une lecture distanciée des résistances et des difficultés mais aussi des avancées réalisées au fil des formes successives des programmes. Que sont les faits religieux et en quoi est-il la question de les aborder en classe ? Comment respecter le principe de neutralité sans esquiver le sujet ? Si l'histoire est souvent en première ligne un plaidoyer particulier est consacré à l'approche par les arts tant leur étude donne accès aux univers symboliques des religions en favorisant tout à la fois une fine contextualisation et la sensibilité du regard. Religious Education at Schools in Europe Martin Rothgangel, Robert Jackson, Martin Jäggle, 2014-05-14 The project Religious Education at Schools in Europe REL EDU which is divided up into six volumes Central Europe Western Europe Northern Europe Southern Europe South Eastern Europe Eastern Europe aims to research the situation with regard to religious education in Europe. The second volume outlines the organisational form of religious education in the countries of Western Europe England Ireland Northern Ireland Scotland Wales Belgium France Luxembourg Netherlands This is done on the basis of thirteen key issues which allows specific points of comparison between different countries in Europe Thereby the volume focusses the comparative approach and facilitates further research into specific aspects of the comparison

Faits religieux et manuels d'histoire Dominique Avon, Isabelle Saint-Martin, John Tolan, 2018 Peut-on et doit-on enseigner les faits religieux ? Quelles conditions ? Un savoir rigoureux et scientifique sur cette question peut-il être dispensé ? Au moment où plus que jamais le religieux est l'objet de multiples projections qu'il est invoqué voire instrumentalisé par des acteurs du champ politique et souvent réduit à la violence qu'il génère, il est important que tous ceux qui ont pour mission de produire et de transmettre la connaissance afin de former les futurs citoyens puissent accéder des outils de réflexion adaptés. Face des phénomènes religieux souvent considérés comme excessivement porteurs de charge émotionnelle, il est tentant pour les autorités politiques comme pour les enseignants d'éviter de les prendre en considération. Le parti pris de ce livre fruit du travail de nombreux spécialistes est d'aller à l'encontre de ce point trop souvent aveugle de l'enseignement. Instruments par excellence de médiation entre les élèves et les professeurs, les manuels scolaires qui traitent des faits religieux sont ici analysés avec le souci de les objectiver au moyen de la méthode historique et de la comparaison non seulement entre des pays de cultures très différentes mais aussi entre des conceptions idéologiques hétérogènes voire concurrence au sein d'un même pays la hauteur des défis éducatifs actuels. L'intention de cet ouvrage est de mettre en perspective les institutions scolaires, les contenus enseignés et les pratiques pédagogiques afin que le religieux soit appréhendé de la manière la plus juste et qu'il participe à la compréhension d'un monde complexe.

Islamic Religious Education in Europe Leni Franken, Bill Gent, 2021-04-01 Against the backdrop of labour migration and the ongoing refugee crisis the ways in which Islam is taught and engaged with in educational settings has become a major topic of contention in Europe. Recognising the need for academic engagement around the challenges and benefits of effective Islamic Religious Education (IRE) this volume offers a comparative study of curricula, teaching materials and teacher education in fourteen European countries and in doing so explores local, national and international complexities of contemporary IRE. Considering the ways in which Islam is taught and represented in state schools, public Islamic schools and non-confessional classes. Part One of this volume includes chapters which survey the varying degrees to which fourteen European States have adopted IRE into curricula and considers the impacts of varied teaching models on Muslim populations. Moving beyond individual countries, approaches to IRE chapters in Part Two offer multi-disciplinary perspectives from the hermeneutical, critical to the postcolonial to address challenges posed by religious teachings on issues such as feminism, human rights and citizenship and the ways these are approached in European settings. Given its multi-faceted approach, this book will be an indispensable resource for postgraduate students, scholars, stakeholders and policymakers working at the intersections of religion, education and policy on religious education.
