Discrimination based on Colour, Ethnic Origin, Language, Religion and Belief in Turkey's Education System Nurcan Kaya, 2015-10-27 The Turkish government is urged to make a fundamental shift in its approach to education by Minority Rights Group International MRG in a new report A long standing focus on state building has been supplemented by increasing emphasis on religious teaching Both feature strongly in the education system in Turkey making schools a focus of discrimination The report Discrimination based on Colour Ethnic Origin Language Religion and Belief in Turkey's Education System reveals evidence of discrimination of minority groups and suggests comprehensive reforms to effectively ensure equality The national education system which for decades aimed to create young Turkish nationalists has in recent years become a vehicle for raising young religious Turkish nationalists says Nurcan Kaya Turkey Coordinator of Minority Rights Group International Religious education is compulsory from grade four in primary schools While some information on world religions has been introduced the emphasis remains on teaching Sunni Muslim religious practices Children of Jewish and Christian families may apply to opt out but the process can be cumbersome and in many schools alternatives are not provided for them Non Muslim students who have opted out can still find themselves having to remain in the religious instruction class or alternatively having to wander in the school corridor making them vulnerable to taunts from pupils and even teachers The opt out possibility is still not available to children of other minorities Another issue is mother tongue education In 2012 a new elective on the living languages and dialects in Turkey was introduced but due to various limitations minorities remain marginalised others in the education system Subsequent to the 2012 reform the report monitors discrimination in the formal education system in the period of the academic year of 2014 2015 The findings are based on the field work of the Monitoring Discrimination in Education Network an alliance of 16 organizations working in Turkey The report compiles numerous cases of discrimination based on language religion ethnicity skin colour and the level of income In order to bring about a fundamental solution to these problems in the education system the government must prioritise developing an approach that sees all groups as equal and that responds to demands for rights based on such an understanding of equality says Kaya The report highlights that Turkey has no anti discrimination law or an equality commission to which victims of discrimination can apply The existing legislation contains no effective and accessible means of judicial remedies or compensation Therefore many discriminatory practices are not reported to school administrations The entire education system is based on Turkishness Non Turkish groups are either not referred to or referred in a negative way says Kaya Education system has played a significant role in deepening conflict in society The positive representation of other groups in the education system would contribute to social peace and harmony In order to resolve the many problems in the education system that the current approach causes the overall aim of government education policy should be cleared of ideological references and the protection of children's best interests and the right to education in line with international standards should be considered its fundamental goal says the report Coaching Innovations Debbie Dailey, Patricia Kohler-Evans, 2017-10-04 This book offers alternative and innovative methods to improve preservice and inservice teacher education The book explores options in preservice education for supervisor coaching of interns completed through both traditional face to face and virtual formats Additionally professional development strategies for inservice teachers using face to face and virtual coaching are discussed with the goal of improving teachers classroom content and pedagogy enhancing teachers ability to engage diverse student populations and supporting teachers in innovative classroom technology applications The book discusses the benefit of using coaching with both preservice and inservice teachers thus shifting the focus of work with teachers from evaluation to increased support in the classroom Notably the book explores an innovative model for this work using virtual coaching to provide teacher candidates and practicing teachers much needed support embedded within their unique classroom context This model uses Bluetooth Bug in the Ear BIE devices with Skype voice over IP software to deliver virtual coaching Finally this book encourages readers to examine coaching relationships and to consider how we as educators engage in coaching practices with our colleagues and our students Last Bell Carl Bistany, Stephanie Gruner Buckley, 2015-11-05 In the mid nineties the Alfred Glickman School was just another failing school in one of America s most violent cities Then SABIS a private for profit education provider took over Twenty years later the school is a six time silver medalist in U S News World Report s annual America s Best High Schools listing and every single graduate of the school has been offered a college place With success of this magnitude you would think that for profit managed charter schools like SABIS would be in high demand On the contrary they are fought at every turn Why is the idea of employing for profit companies to help rescue failing public schools treated with fear and hostility Stranger still why does a nation built on free enterprise refuse to embrace a free market strategy when so many students and schools would clearly benefit and with so much at stake Last Bell is a book about politics money and power It examines the charge that for profits running charter schools are in it for the money not the kids and reveals the real motives of those spreading these ideas and why they fight private sector involvement in public schools Last Bell is a reasonable voice in a polarized debate It does not call for an end to public schools but rather imagines a future in which private companies help create a competitive market for public education to boost performance turn derelict schools into centers of excellence and give parents even in the worst neighborhoods real choice and their children a future Global Action on School Library Guidelines Barbara A. Schultz-Jones, Dianne Oberg, 2015-06-16 This book celebrates the new IFLA School Library Guidelines and shows how the Guidelines can be used in improving school library services Each chapter describes innovative initiatives for developing implementing and promoting school library guidelines The book provides inspiration and guidance for the creation of national school library standards and for the development and use of standards and guidelines to change school library practice to define the teaching role of school librarians to guide the initial preparation of school librarians and to advocate for school library services Contributors to the book come from around the
