Americans live in neighborhoods that are filled with gun violence dysfunctional and abusive families and children with deficient academic and behavioral skills Instead of engaging in an open minded search for solutions too many pundits and politicians are content to point their fingers at systemic racism while dismissing individual effort and traditional measures of merit as part and parcel of a system that is irredeemably broken In The State of the Black Family the economist Robert Cherry presents a blueprint for a robust set of policies that can break the cycle of intergenerational poverty and move these families forward by providing direct family support practical educational approaches housing policies to reinvigorate
