

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

Junior Graphic Mavis Kitcher (Mrs),2014-07-09 Growing Up Brown Peter M. Jamero, Sr.,2011-09-01 I may have been like other boys but there was a major difference my family included 80 to 100 single young men residing in a Filipino farm labor camp It was as a campo boy that I first learned of my ancestral roots and the sometimes tortuous path that Filipinos took in sailing halfway around the world to the promise that was America It was as a campo boy that I first learned the values of family community hard work and education As a campo boy I also began to see the two faces of America a place where Filipinos were at once welcomed and excluded were considered equal and were discriminated against It was a place where the values of fairness and freedom often fell short when Filipinos put them to the test Peter Jamero Peter Jamero's story of hardship and success illuminates the experience of what he calls the bridge generation the American born children of the Filipinos recruited as farm workers in the 1920s and 30s Their experiences span the gap between these early immigrants and those Filipinos who owe their U S residency to the liberalization of immigration laws in 1965 His book is a sequel of sorts to Carlos Bulosan's America Is in the Heart with themes of heartbreaking struggle against racism and poverty and eventual triumph Jamero describes his early life in a farm labor camp in Livingston California and the path that took him through naval service and graduate school far beyond Livingston A longtime community activist and civic leader Jamero describes decades of toil and progress before the Filipino community entered the sociopolitical mainstream He shares a wealth of anecdotes and reflections from his career as an executive of health and human service programs in Sacramento Washington D C Seattle and San Francisco How to Keep Things Hot and Exciting While Deepening the Trust Lola Zakee,2021-03-31

Lola Zakee is an intelligent young woman who is admired by many She loves life nature animals and has a heart of gold Lola's only mistake in life is that she is not smart when it comes to men After she marries a man she barely knows Lola unknowingly embarks down a dark path as he repeatedly abuses and rapes her keeping her against her will When she finally manages to escape she begins anew only to remarry and fail again As she tries to live without regret or fear Lola is soon gifted with a blessing that prompts her to make difficult decisions to save her unborn child Just when she is ready to give up God sends her Kareem As they travel the world and escape one danger after another Lola inherits millions and devotes her time to helping others risking her own life in the process But as the clock ticks away now only time will tell what Lola will do next as she faces hardships pain and agonizing choices with strength courage and patience In this compelling story a young woman must determine what to do to survive life's greatest challenges as she chases her dreams to realize a happy existence
