Metaphor And Writing Philip Eubanks:

Metaphor and Writing Philip Eubanks, 2010-11-04 This volume explains how metaphors metonymies and other figures of thought interact cognitively and rhetorically to tell us what writing is and what it should do Drawing on interviews with writing professionals and published commentary about writing it argues that our everyday metaphors and metonymies for writing are part of a figurative rhetoric of writing a pattern of discourse and thought that includes ways we categorize writers and writing stories we tell about people who write conceptual metaphors and metonymies used both to describe and to guide writing and familiar yet surprisingly adaptable conceptual blends used routinely for imagining writing situations The book will give scholars a fresh understanding of concepts such as voice self clarity power and the most basic figure of all the writer

Geographies of Writing Nedra Reynolds, 2007-09-03 Twenty first century technological innovations have revolutionized the way we experience space causing an increased sense of fragmentation danger and placelessness In Geographies of Writing Inhabiting Places and Encountering Difference Nedra Reynolds addresses these problems in the context of higher education arguing that theories of writing and rhetoric must engage the metaphorical implications of place without ignoring materiality Geographies of Writing makes three closely related contributions one theoretical to reimagine composing as spatial material and visual one political to understand the sociospatial construction of difference and one pedagogical to teach writing as a set of spatial practices Aided by seven maps and illustrations that reinforce the book's visual rhetoric Geographies of Writing shows how composition tasks and electronic space function as conduits for navigating reality

Disrupting the Center Rebecca Hallman Martini, 2022-04-15 Strategic partnership offers writing centers a framework for responding to disruptive innovations in higher education Through partnership writing centers can simultaneously secure resources and support the practice of tutoring writing in ways that enable moments of resistance where writing consultants and students can tactically challenge the corporate university through their methods of practice Disrupting the Center explicates analyzes and critiques one particular writing center's partnership approach to collaboration with disciplinary faculty and upper administrators across the curriculum Using on site research and critical ethnographic study from one university writing center Rebecca Hallman Martini establishes an innovative cross disciplinary partnership approach to writing instruction in which peer tutoring plays an integral curricular role Case studies detail three partnerships that respond directly to existing or potential disruptive innovations in higher education and showcase important concepts mapping mutual benefit and stakeholder engagement in an online studio hybrid first year writing program partnership in response to online education creating negotiated space to work through ethical issues involved when working with a public private partnership to develop a required extracurricular portfolio project in a business school and building transformational partnerships through establishing a writing in the professions curriculum in the College of Engineering in response to career readiness initiatives Disrupting the Center uses interviews observations focus groups analysis of consultations meetings and shared documents such as annual reports budgets assessment data assignments and syllabi to generate a wide view of how systems work Writing centers are flexible university wide service spaces where students go for one on one and group writing support that can become dynamic spaces for writing pedagogy by disrupting revitalizing and reinventing the epistemic foundations of current rhetoric and composition landscapes and traditional approaches to writing

Disrupting Pedagogies in the Knowledge Society: Countering Conservative Norms with Creative Approaches Faulkner, Julie, 2011-12-31 This book examines a range of disruptive approaches exploring how challenge dissonance and discomfort might be mobilized in educational contexts in order to shift taken for granted attitudes and beliefs held by both educators and learners Provided by publisher The Routledge Handbook of Metaphor and Language Elena Semino, Zsófia Demjén, 2016-11-03 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Metaphor provides a comprehensive overview of state of the art interdisciplinary research on metaphor and language and maps out future directions of research and practice in a variety of contexts in this field

The Centrality of Style Mike Duncan, Star Medzerian Vanguri, 2013-04-07 In The Centrality of Style editors Mike Duncan and Star Medzerian Vanguri argue that style is a central concern of composition studies even as they demonstrate that some of the most compelling work in the area has emerged from the margins of the field

What Writing Does and How It Does It Charles Bazerman, Paul Prior, 2003-12-08 In What Writing Does and How It Does It editors Charles Bazerman and Paul Prior offer a sophisticated introduction to methods for understanding studying and analyzing texts and writing practices This volume addresses a variety of approaches to analyzing texts and considers the processes of writing exploring textual practices and their contexts and examining what texts do and how texts mean rather than what they mean Included are traditional modes of analysis rhetorical literary linguistic as well as newer modes such as text and talk genre and activity analysis and intertextual analysis The chapters have been developed to provide answers to a specified set of questions with each one offering a preview of the chapter's content and purpose an introduction to basic concepts referring to key theoretical and research studies in the area details on the types of data and questions for which the analysis is best used examples from a wide ranging group of texts including educational materials student writing published literature and online and electronic media one or more applied analyses with a clear statement of procedures for analysis and illustrations of a particular sample of data and a brief summary suggestions for additional readings and a set of activities The side by side comparison of methods allows the reader to see the multi dimensionality of writing facilitating selection of the best method for a particular research question The volume contributors are experts from linguistics communication studies rhetoric literary analysis document design sociolinguistics education ethnography and cultural psychology and each utilizes a specific mode of text analysis With its broad range of methodological examples What Writing Does and How It Does It is a unique and invaluable resource for advanced undergraduate and graduate students and for researchers in education composition ESL and applied linguistics communication L1 and L2 learning print media and electronic media It will also be
