Look A Negro Philosophical Essays On Race Culture And Politics:

Look, a Negro! Robert Gooding-Williams, 2013-11-26 In Look a Negro political theorist Robert Gooding Williams imaginatively and impressively unpacks fundamental questions around race and racism Inspired by Frantz Fanon's famous description of the profound effect of being singled out by a white child with the words Look a Negro his book is an insightful rich and unusually wide ranging work of social criticism These essays engage themes that have dominated debates on race and racial identity in recent years the workings of racial ideology including the interplay of gender and sexuality in the articulation of racial ideology the viability of social constructionist theories of race the significance of Afrocentrism and multiculturalism for democracy the place of black identity in the imagination and articulation of America's inheritance of philosophy and the conceptualization of African American politics in post segregation America Look a Negro will be of interest to philosophers political theorists critical race theorists students of cultural studies and film and readers concerned with the continuing importance of race consciousness to democratic culture in the United States The Postcolonial Enlightenment Daniel Carey, Lynn Festa, 2009-02-26 Over the last thirty years postcolonial critiques of European imperial practices have transformed our understanding of colonial ideology resistance and cultural contact The Enlightenment has played a complex but often unacknowledged role in this discussion alternately reviled and venerated as the harbinger of colonial dominion and avatar of liberation as target and shield as shadow and light This volume brings together two arenas eighteenth century studies and postcolonial theory in order to interrogate the role and reputation of Enlightenment in the context of early European colonial ambitions and postcolonial interrogations of Western imperial aspirations With essays by leading scholars in the field Postcolonial Enlightenment address issues central not only to literature and philosophy but also to natural history religion law and the emerging sciences of man The contributors situate a range of writers from Hobbes and Herder Behn and Burke to Defoe and Diderot in relation both to eighteenth century colonial practices and to key concepts within current postcolonial theory concerning race globalization human rights sovereignty and national and personal identity By enlarging the temporal and geographic framework through which we read the essays in this volume open up alternate genealogies for categories events and ideas central to the emergence of global modernity A Political Companion to Frederick Douglass Neil Roberts, 2018-06-29 A splendid opportunity to rethink Douglass's political thought relevant today given the discourse of white nationalism in the United States Choice Frederick Douglass was a writer and public speaker whose impact on America has been long studied by historians and literary critics Yet as political theorists have focused on the legacies of such notables as W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington Douglass's profound influence on Afro modern and American political thought has often been undervalued In an effort to fill this gap in the scholarship on Douglass editor Neil Roberts and an exciting group of established and rising scholars examine the author's autobiographies essays speeches and novella Together they illuminate his genius for analyzing and articulating core American ideals such as independence liberation individualism and freedom particularly in the context of slavery The contributors explore Douglass's understanding of the self made American and the way in which he expanded the notion of individual potential by arguing that citizens had a responsibility to improve not only their own situations but also those of their communities A Political Companion to Frederick Douglass also considers the idea of agency investigating Douglass's passionate insistence that every person in a democracy even a slave possesses an innate ability to act Various essays illuminate Douglass's complex racial politics deconstructing what seems at first to be his surprising aversion to racial pride and others explore and critique concepts of masculinity gender and judgment in his oeuvre The volume concludes with a discussion of Douglass's contributions to pre and post Civil War jurisprudence Rich insights from scholarship both old and new A fine collection Political Theory In the Shadow of Du Bois Robert Gooding-Williams, 2011-04-15 Here in a major addition to American studies and the first book length philosophical treatment of Du Bois's thought Robert Gooding Williams examines the conceptual foundations of Du Bois's interpretation of black politics Saved by Philosophy Steven H. Propp, 2007-03-01 Hypatia Washington is 22 years old an unemployed widow living on welfare and estranged from her four year old daughter she is profoundly alienated from life when she enrolls in a community college course in Philosophy thus beginning a profound journey of the mind and heart She debates skeptics as well as Christian apologists about Evolution Islam Womanism and God while lecturing about ethics science consciousness and the meaning of human history She analyzes not only philosophers such as Russell Rawls Wittgenstein and Sartre but wrestles with such questions as Which famous philosophers were racists Was Heidegger a Nazi Was Wittgenstein homosexual Did Foucault know he had AIDS Were any important philosophers women Or black Professor Washington is no ivory tower philosopher she agonizes over the Rodney King trial and its aftermath The O J Simpson verdict the death of Tupac Shakur the Black Athena controversy and the publication of The Bell Curve as well as the horrors of September 11 2001 and its consequences Join Hypatia in her pursuit of the Amor Dei Intellectualis intellectual love of God

Black Natural Law Vincent W. Lloyd, 2016-05-02 Black Natural Law offers a new way of understanding the African American political tradition and it argues that this tradition has collapsed into incoherence Vincent William Lloyd revives Black politics by telling stories of its central figures in a way that exhibits the connections between their religious philosophical and political ideas Under Representation David Lloyd, 2018-11-13 Under Representation shows how the founding texts of aesthetic philosophy ground the racial order of the modern world in our concepts of universality freedom and humanity In taking on the relation of aesthetics to race Lloyd challenges the absence of sustained thought about race in postcolonial studies as well as the lack of sustained attention to aesthetics in critical race theory Late Enlightenment discourse on aesthetic experience proposes a decisive account of the conditions of possibility for universal human subjecthood The aesthetic forges a powerful racial regime of representation whose genealogy runs from enlightenment thinkers like Kant and Schiller to late modernist critics like Adorno and Benjamin For aesthetic philosophy representation is not just about depiction of diverse humans or inclusion in political or cultural institutions It is an activity that undergirds the various spheres of human practice and theory from the most fundamental acts of perception and reflection to the relation of the subject to the political the economic and the social Representation regulates the distribution of racial identifications along a developmental trajectory The racialized remain under representation on the threshold of humanity and not yet capable of freedom and civility as aesthetic thought defines those attributes To ignore the aesthetic is thus to overlook its continuing force in the formation of the racial and political structures down to the present Across five chapters Under Representation investigates the aesthetic foundations of modern political subjectivity race and the sublime the logic of assimilation and the stereotype the subaltern critique of representation and the place of magic and the primitive in modernist concepts of art aura and representation Both a genealogy and an account of our present Under Representation ultimately helps show how a political reading of aesthetics can help us build a racial politics adequate for the problems we face today one that stakes claims more radical than multicultural demands for representation

Equality Renewed Christine Sypnowich, 2016-12-19 How should we approach the daunting task of renewing the ideal of equality In this book Christine Sypnowich proposes a theory of equality centred on human flourishing or wellbeing She argues that egalitarianism should be understood as seeking to make people more equal in the constituents of a good life Inequality is a social ill because of the damage it does to human flourishing unequal distribution of wealth can have the effect that some people are poorly housed badly nourished ill educated unhappy or uncultured among other things When we seek to make people more equal our concern is not just resources or property but how people fare under one distribution or another Ultimately the best answer to the question equality of what is some conception of flourishing since whatever policies or principles we adopt it is flourishing that we hope will be more equal as a result of our endeavours Sypnowich calls for both retrieval and innovation What is to be retrieved is the ideal of equality itself which is often assumed as a background condition of theories of justice yet at the same time dismissed as too homogenising abstract and rigid a criterion for political argument We must retrieve the ideal of equality as a central political principle In doing so she casts doubt on the value of focussing on cultural difference and rejects the idea of neutrality that dominates contemporary political philosophy in favour of a view of the state as enabling the betterment of its citizens

Film and Philosophy Daniel Shaw, 2008 This introductory volume presents an overview of the philosophy of film a burgeoning sub discipline of Aesthetics It offers a sampling of paradigmatic instances of philosophers and philosophical film theorists discussing the movies in a fashion that takes cinema as seriously as any other Fine Art leaving little doubt that doing philosophy of film is a serious intellectual enterprise

Race Course Against White Supremacy William Ayers, Bernardine Dohrn, 2009 Arguing that white supremacy has been the dominant political system in the United States since its earliest days and that it is still very much with us the discussion points to unexamined bigotry in the criminal justice system election processes war policy and education Association. Meeting, 2005 Democracy and Beauty Robert Gooding-Williams, 2025-06-03 What is beauty and what is its political function In what ways might it help undermine white supremacy and cultivate a more democratic political culture Democracy and Beauty shines a light on W E B Du Bois s attempts to answer these questions during the decade surrounding the First World War and in so doing offers a groundbreaking account of the philosopher s aesthetics Robert Gooding Williams reconstructs Du Bois s defense of the political potential of beauty to challenge oppressive systems and foster an inclusive democracy White supremacy is a powerful force that defies rational revision Du Bois argued because it is rooted in the entrenched routines of its adherents Beauty however has a distinctive role to play in the struggle against white supremacy It can strengthen resolve and ward off despair by showing the oppressed that they can alter their social world and it can unsettle and even transform the pernicious habits that perpetuate white supremacy Gooding Williams also explores Du Bois s account of the interplay among white supremacy Christianity capitalism and imperialism as well as key tensions in his work A rich engagement with Du Bois s philosophy of beauty this book demonstrates the relevance of his social thought and aesthetics to present day arguments about Black pessimism Black optimism and the aesthetic turn in Black studies Film International , 2006 The Harlem Renaissance: Authors I-Z Janet Witalec, 2003 Presents writings by and criticism on seventeen Harlem Renaissance authors including Claude McKay and Jean Toomer This volume covers I Z Union Catalog of the Graduate Theological Union Graduate Theological Union.
