Addressing Gun Violence Through

Local Ordinances, 1995 The Making of the Modern Mediterranean, 2019-07-09 Studies of the pivotal historic place of the Mediterranean have long been dominated by specialists of its northern shores that is by European historians The seven leading authors in this groundbreaking volume challenge views of Mediterranean space as shaped by European trajectories and in doing so they challenge our comfortable notions Drawing perspectives from the Mediterranean's eastern and southern shores they ask anew What is the Mediterranean What are its borders its defining characteristics What forces of nature politics culture or economics have made the Mediterranean and how long have they or will they endure Covering the sixteenth century to the twentieth this timely volume brings the early modern world into conversation with the modern world in new ways demonstrating that only recently can we differentiate the north and south into separate cultural and political zones The Making of the Modern Mediterranean Views from the South offers a blueprint for a new generation of readers to rethink the world we thought we knew Language Conflict in Algeria Mohamed Benrabah, 2013-05-16 This book presents a detailed survey of language attitudes conflicts and policies over the period from 1830 when the French occupied Algeria up to 2012 the year this country celebrated its 50th anniversary of independence It traces the evolution of language planning policies and reactions to them in both the colonial and post colonial eras Hoarding Memory Amy L. Hubbell, 2020-12 Hoarding Memory looks at the ways the stories of the Algerian War 1954-62 have proliferated among the former French citizens of Algeria By engaging hoarding as a model Amy L. Hubbell demonstrates the simultaneously productive and destructive nature of clinging to memory These memories present massive amounts of material akin to the stored objects in a hoarder's house Through analysis of fiction autobiography art and history that extensively use collecting layering and repetition to address painful war memories Hubbell shows trauma can be hidden within its own representation Hoarding Memory dedicates chapters to specific authors and artists who use this hoarding technique Marie Cardinal Le la Sebbar and Benjamin Stora in writing and Nicole Guiraud and Patrick Altes in art All were born in Algeria during colonial French rule but in vastly different contexts each suffered personal or inherited trauma from racism physical or psychological abuse terrorist or other violent acts of war and exile in France Zineb Sedira's artwork is also included as an example of traumatic memory inherited from her parents Ultimately this book shows how traumatic experience can be conveyed in a seemingly open account that is compounded and compacted by the volume of words images and other memorial debris that testify to the pain The Chivalric Turn David Crouch, 2019-06-06 The Chivalric Turn examines the medieval obsession with defining and practising superior conduct and the social consequences that followed from it Historians since the seventeenth century have tended to understand medieval conduct through the eyes of the writers of the Enlightenment viewing superior conduct as knightly behaviour and categorising it as chivalry Using for the first time the full range of the considerable twelfth and thirteenth century literature on conduct in the European vernaculars and in Latin The Chivalric Turn describes and defines what superior lay conduct was in European society before chivalry and maps how and why chivalry emerged and redefined superior conduct in the last generation of the twelfth century The emergence of chivalry was only one part of a major social change because it changed how people understood the concept of nobility which had consequences for the medieval understanding of gender social class violence and the limits of law Good Wife, Wise Mother Fang Yu Hu,2024-09-24 Traces Japan s efforts to modernize Taiwan through gendered educational practices In Good Wife Wise Mother female education and citizenship serve as a lens through which to examine Taiwan s uniqueness as a colonial crossroads between Chinese and Japanese ideas and practices A latecomer to the age of imperialism Japan used modernization efforts in Taiwan to cast itself as a benevolent force among its colonial subjects and imperial competitors In contrast to most European colonies where only elites received an education in Taiwan Japan built elementary schools intended for the entire population including girls In 1897 it developed a program known as Good Wife Wise Mother that sought to transform Han Taiwanese girls into modern Japanese female citizens Drawing on Japanese and Chinese newspapers textbooks oral interviews and fiction Fang Yu Hu illustrates how this seemingly progressive project advanced a particular Japanese vision of modernity womanhood and citizenship to which the colonized Han Taiwanese people responded with varying degrees of collaboration resistance adaptation and adoption Hu also assesses the program s impact on Taiwan s class structure male female interactions and political identity both during and after the end of Japanese occupation in 1945 Good Wife Wise Mother expands the study of Taiwanese history by contributing important gendered and nonelite perspectives It will be of interest to any historian concerned with questions of modernity hybridity and colonial nostalgia
