I'D DONE THE IMPOSSIBLE: I'D CONVINCED ALEX TO GO apple picking.

I might have cheated and tricked him into agreeing during sex—he was far more accommodating after an orgasm—but to be fair, I was sure he didn't hate the countryside and fall activities as much as he proclaimed.

Case in point: we'd been apple picking for hours, and he hadn't once complained. He hadn't gushed about it either, but it was Alex. He didn't gush about anything. The fact that he hadn't killed anyone was proof enough he was enjoying himself.

"A little to the left...a little more...perfect!" I plucked the apple I'd been eyeing off the tree and dropped it into my basket. Since it was too high for me to reach, Alex had hoisted me onto his shoulders and let me use him as my personal ladder. "I think that's the last one."

"Good." He lowered me onto the ground, his tone dry. "Any more and you would've picked all the trees bare."

I let out a small huff. "You're exaggerating."

We stared down at my overflowing basket. It was my fifth one that day.

Soldier King's Love Affairs In City Da MoGuYang,2020-07-01 He was the king of the mercenary world but he had fallen into a huge conspiracy When Two Are In Love or As I Came To Behind Frank's Transporter Philip Terry,James Davies,2019 With purity of playfulness and razor edge wit this novel tells a story of true romance and also the quest to find a decent place to get a drink Anarchic ridiculous considered and capricious When Two Are In Love or As I Came to Behind Frank s Transporter is an unique vision of the peculiarity of attachment of young sweethearts passionate lovers and sticking it out until the very end And just as love dissolves all in its path here as you read the story starts to fall apart in your hands and turn into something else altogether A kind of 21st century Metamorphoses All My Love and Then Some Margaret Melhorn,2024-05-30 In the middle of World War II in September 1942 an enthusiastic eighteen year old named Polly Meilman boarded a train to Toronto She was leaving her home in Nova Scotia for her basic training in the Women s Division of the Royal Canadian Air Force RCAF By July 1943 her abilities were recognized with a promotion to the rank of corporal She continued to serve until her discharge in January 1946 Throughout her training in Toronto and her eventual posting to a base in Prince Edward Island Corporal Meilman wrote diligently to her parents back home about her life in the RCAF She wrote on whatever paper she could get her hands on and whenever she could find a spare moment Now her letters are an incredibly valuable window into the lives of the women or WDs as they were known who stepped forward to serve their country in wartime and proved that they were capable of filling non combat roles previously filled only by men All My Love and Then Some contains more than eighty of the letters of Corporal Polly Meilman to her mother and father during WWII Meilman s daughter Margaret Melhorn compiled and edited these letters and provided additional insights into their historical and familial context Filled with Meilman s characteristic wit and humour these letters provide a lively first hand account of a young woman learning adjusting and maturing during her service in the air force For historians these pages contain incredible insights into the lives of women in the RCAF during WWII For history enthusiasts Meilman s letters breathe life into history in a way that only personal storytelling can achieve Love in the Driest Season Neely Tucker,2004-02-17 Foreign correspondent Neely Tucker and his wife Vita arrived in Zimbabwe in 1997 After witnessing firsthand the devastating consequences of AIDS on the population especially the children the couple started volunteering at an orphanage that was desperately underfunded and short staffed One afternoon a critically ill infant was brought to the orphanage from a village outside the city She d been left to die in a field on the day she was born abandoned in the tall brown grass that covers the highlands of Zimbabwe in the dry season After a near death hospital stay and under strict doctor s orders the ailing child was entrusted to the care of Tucker and Vita Within weeks Chipso the girl child whose name means gift would come to mean everything to them Still an active correspondent Tucker crisscrossed the continent filing stories about the uprisings in the Congo the civil war in Sierra Leone and the postgenocidal conflict in Rwanda He witnessed heartbreaking scenes of devastation and violence steeling him further to take a personal role in helping anywhere he could At home in Harare Vita was nursing Chipo back to health Soon she and Tucker decided to alter their lives forever they would adopt Chipo That decision challenged an unspoken social norm that foreigners should never adopt Zimbabwean children Raised in rural Mississippi in the sixties and seventies Tucker was familiar with the mores associated with and dictated by race His wife a savvy black woman whose father escaped the Jim Crow South for a new life in the industrial North would not be deterred in her resolve to welcome Chipo into their loving family As if their situation wasn't tenuous enough Zimbabwe President Robert Mugabe was stirring up national fervor against foreigners especially journalists abroad and at home At its peak his antagonizing branded all foreign journalists personae non grata For Tucker the only full time American correspondent in Zimbabwe the declaration was a direct threat to his life and his wife's safety and an ultimatum to their decision to adopt the child who had already become their only daughter Against a background of war terrorism disease and unbearable uncertainty about the future Chipo's story emerges as an inspiring testament to the miracles that love and dogged determination can sometimes achieve Gripping heartbreaking and triumphant this family memoir will resonate throughout the ages
