Practice and Theory for Materials Development in L2 Learning Alan Maley, Hitomi Masuhara, Freda Mishan, 2017-03-07

This volume represents a unique addition to the growing body of empirical literature on materials development adopting a reverse approach to the topic Rather than applying theory to practice practitioners and researchers from 11 countries reappraise applied linguistics theories through practice The book also provides evidence for the diversity of materials development around the globe at different levels for different specialities and for different purposes Each chapter surveys the relevant literature such as task based learning and language and culture describes a specific research project reports the results of the project and discusses the implications of these results for the development of materials both in the local context and in general After each section there are editorial comments highlighting the issues emerging from the research and there is a conclusion which connects the findings of the various chapters and makes suggestions both for future research and for the principled development of materials for L2 learners The book will be suitable for teachers materials developers academics and students in post graduate courses in applied linguistics in TEFL TESOL and in the teaching of other languages as an L2

Electing the Pope in Early Modern Italy, 1450-1700 Miles Pattenden, 2017-07-21 Electing the Pope in Early Modern Italy 1450 1700 offers a radical reassessment of the history of early modern papacy constructed through the first major analytical treatment of papal elections in English Papal elections with their ceremonial pomp and high drama are compelling theatre but until now no one has analysed them on the basis of the problems they created for cardinals how were they to agree rules and enforce them How should they manage the interregnum How did they decide for whom to vote How was the new pope to assert himself over a group of men who until just moments before had been his equals and peers This study traces how the cardinals responses to these problems evolved over the period from Martin V's return to Rome in 1420 to Pius VI's departure from it in 1798 placing them in the context of the papacy's wider institutional developments Miles Pattenden argues not only that the elective nature of the papal office was crucial to how papal history unfolded but also that the cardinals of the fifteenth to eighteenth centuries present us with a unique case study for observing the approaches to decision making and problem solving within an elite political group

Themes in West Africa's History Emmanuel Kwaku

Akyeampong, 2006-01-15 There has long been a need for a new textbook on West Africa's history In Themes in West Africa's History editor Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong and his contributors meet this need examining key themes in West Africa's prehistory to the present through the lenses of their different disciplines The contents of the book comprise an introduction and thirteen chapters divided into three parts Each chapter provides an overview of existing literature on major topics as well as a short list of recommended reading and breaks new ground through the incorporation of original research The first part of the book examines paths to a West African past including perspectives from archaeology ecology and culture linguistics and oral traditions Part two probes environment society and agency and historical change through essays on the slave trade social inequality religious interaction poverty disease and urbanization Part three sheds light on contemporary West Africa in exploring how economic and political developments have shaped religious expression and identity in significant ways Themes in West Africa s History represents a range of intellectual views and interpretations from leading scholars on West Africa s history It will appeal to college undergraduates graduate students and scholars in the way it draws on different disciplines and expertise to bring together key themes in West Africa s history from prehistory to the present
