The Satisfied Life Jane Ellen McAvoy, 2009-07-01 Christianity centers on the life and death of Jesus as Christ Often Christians focus on the importance of Christ's Sacrifice as the means of human salvation and the faithful are encouraged to imitate this suffering through self sacrifice and self denial More than a few Christians particularly women have found such encouragement to self sacrifice to be a means for continuing oppression men over women colonizers over the colonized the powerful over the powerless In The Satisfied Life Jane McAvoy constructs a feminist theology of atonement or satisfaction for sin that draws on the insights of six medieval women mystics Julian of Norwich Mechthild of Magdeburg Hildegard of Bingen Margery Kempe Hadewijch of Brabant and Catherine of Siena These Christian writers reveal alternatives to a theology of oppression Salvation for them means experiencing the death and resurrection of Christ not as life denying but as a life affirming celebration of God's love for us through the sustaining love of Jesus How We Love Matters Albert Tate, 2022-03-08 This powerful book reimagines discipleship by begging us to acknowledge that racism exists in the Church and offers the hopeful message that we can disciple it out It is not an accident that racism is alive and well in the American church Racism has in fact been taught within the church for so long most of us don't even recognize it anymore Pastor Albert Tate guides all of us in acknowledging the racism that keeps us from loving each other the way God intends and encourages siblings in Christ to sit together in racial discomfort examining the role we may play in someone's else's struggle. How We Love Matters is a series of nine moving letters that educate, enlighten, and reimagine discipleship in a way that flips the church on its head. In these letters that include Dear Whiteness, Dear America, and Dear Church, Tate calls out racism in the world, the church within himself, and us. These letters present an anti-racist mission and vision for believers to follow that helps us to speak up at the family table and call out this evil so it will not persist in future generations. Tate believes that the only way to make change is by telling the truth about where we are relationally, internally, and spiritually. How We Love Matters is an exposition of relevant Biblical truth, a clarion call for all believers to examine how they see and understand each other, and it is a way forward toward justice, reconciliation, and healing. Because yes, it is important that we love each other, but it is even more important how we love each other. The Varieties of Religious Experience, William James, 1929. Is 9/11 a Call to Heal America?, Ralph W. Rowe MD, 2009-01-01. The primary focus of this book is to determine if the Greek word for worship, proskuneo, used in John 4:23-24 includes the concept of bowing the knees or kneeling. In the New Testament, proskuneo is translated as worship sixty times. All of the worship events in the New Testament that included a form of bowing the knees or kneeling has been documented. This task was undertaken using five reliable sources of information or testimony: 1. the testimony of God or Scripture (1 Corinthians 2:1-2); 2. the testimony of lexicons or Greek dictionaries; 3. the testimony of Bible translators; 4. the testimony of history; and 5. the testimony of Bible scholars. The book was written with all categories of readers in mind: worship leaders, clergy, college professors, Seminary students, Bible scholars, teachers, graduate school students, Pastors, lay people, seekers, and is suitable as a textbook in all Bible classes that include the subject of worship.
