

Lord of The Flies - Chapter 5

Important points to note and content on from Chapter 5. Please read and write down in your books.

- Things and characters have changed since being on the island.
 - Ralph seems more mature - his experiences have forced him to become more thoughtful and 'grown-up'.
 - Society is breaking down. Ralph even identifies this: "Things are breaking up. I don't understand why. We began well; we were happy. And then - " And then what?"
- The 'fear' needs to be dealt with, and Ralph, Jack and Piggy have different approaches.
 - Ralph wants to have an open dialogue, he acknowledges that even he has fear but they must deal with it.
 - Jack just shouts at them, calling them "cry-babies and snobs", and tells them to just "put up with it". He even goes so far as to say that it would serve them right if it did get them.
 - Piggy is the most diplomatic and rational. He questions the idea in an attempt to get the boys to understand - "Course there isn't a beast in the forest. How could there be?"
- The 'fear' is real, even if the beast is not.
 - We must not forget that they are still young boys. They have fears - and they are very real to them.
 - The beast functions as one of the most important symbols in the novel, representing both the terror (for the littluns) and the appeal of the primitive desires for violence, power, and savagery that exist within every human soul (as we see with Jack's desire to kill it).
- "Because the rules are the only thing we've got!" - Ralph
