Air Transport and Regional Development Policies Anne Graham, Nicole Adler, Hans-Martin Niemeier, Ofelia Betancor, António Pais Antunes, Volodymyr Bilotkach, Enrique J. Calderón, Gianmaria Martini, 2020-12-17 Air Transport and Regional Development Policies is one of three interconnected books related to a four year European Cooperation in Science and Technology COST Action established in 2015 The Action called Air Transport and Regional Development ATARD aimed to promote a better understanding of how the air transport related problems of core regions and remote regions should be addressed in order to enhance both economic competitiveness and social cohesion in Europe This book focuses on policy implications related to air transport and regional development It begins with chapters that generally discuss important policy issues related to air transport and regional development in relation to connectivity and accessibility dependency airport governance and regulation and air traffic control frameworks This is followed by a number of chapters that consider government subsidies and state aid The final chapters focus on other policy implications tourism development airport

expansion passenger taxation and noise control Currently no other single source publication covers this topic area in such a comprehensive manner insofar as it considers so many policies and examples The book aims at becoming a major reference source on the topic drawing from experienced researchers in the field covering the diverse experience and knowledge of the members of the COST Action The book will appeal to academics practitioners and government bodies who have a particular interest in acquiring detailed comparative knowledge and understanding of the policy implications of air transport and regional development Along with the other two books Air Transport and Regional Development Methodologies and Air Transport and Regional Development Case Studies it fills a much needed gap in the literature
