When Ivy Cole's father dies, the empire he built falls into her hands. A company that once symbolized power, ambition, and control is now crumbling, and Ivy is left to pick up the pieces. But she didn't ask for this. She didn't want to lead Cole Designs or inherit the cutthroat world of boardrooms and high stakes. All Ivy ever wanted was freedom, freedom from the iron grip of her father, from the suffocating legacy of a man who valued business over everything else. But the world doesn't care what Ivy wants. The board, her father's former allies and enemies are all circling, waiting for her to fail. Every decision she makes is scrutinized. Every step she takes is an opportunity for someone to knock her down. Then there's Luca Beaumont, the dangerous, irresistible billionaire who reappears as if he never left. The man who once burned through Ivy's life like a storm, leaving only ashes and broken promises in his wake. Luca holds the keys to Cole Designs' future, but he's not here to help. He's here to take what's left, to tear it apart, to get revenge on her father and everything he built. Their relationship was always one of fire and fury. It's only worse now. Their rivalry is a game of power, an intricate dance of control, manipulation, and desire. Ivy knows she can't trust him, not even for a second, but she also knows that the fire between them burns hotter than anything she's ever known. As Ivy battles to hold onto the empire she never wanted but is determined to save, Luca's presence looms like a constant, dangerous pull. His every move is calculated to destabilize her, to drag her back into the darkness of the past. But Ivy refuses to be the pawn in his game. She will fight, even if it means risking everything. Betrayals unfold in the high-rise offices of Cole Designs; secrets spill into the open, and Ivy is pushed to her limits. The stakes are higher than ever, more than just her father's legacy, more than just Cole Designs. This is about survival. This is about power. This is about Ivy finding her place in a world that wants to tear her down. But through it all, she must ask herself one question: Can she let go of the past, or will it consume her? Vow of Vengeance weaves a complex tapestry of love, betrayal, power, and passion. Ivy's fight for control of the company and her heart is a journey that will keep readers on the edge of their seats. The story is one of intense emotions, heart-pounding tension, and a romance that unfolds in unexpected, breathtaking ways.
