European Literary Immigration Into the French Language Tijana Miletic, 2008 The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary Agota Kristof Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun with reference to many others European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic sociological and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity This volume is relevant to French and European literature scholars and anyone with interest in immigration European identity or second language adoption La Danse de Gengis Cohn Romain Gary (Pseudonyme), 1967 The Yiddish Presence in

European Literature Joseph Sherman, 2017-12-02 Early in the twentieth century Yiddish previously stigmatized as a corrupt jargon came to be recognized as a language in its own right and one moreover that was already the vehicle for a rich literature Many writers in other European languages steadily became aware of the status and richness of the Yiddish language sometimes by encountering Yiddish speaking communities in Eastern Europe and they responded to Yiddish language and culture in their own works while Yiddish writers adopted and sometimes anticipated modern trends in other European literatures known to them The collection of papers in this volume examines some of these fruitful interactions between Yiddish and the European literary tradition ranging from the early nineteenth century to the present from France to Lithuania and from classic modernist writers such as Kafka to Imre Kertesz Nobel Prize for Literature 2002 With the contributions Gilles Rozier When Purim shpiler meets Columbine Characters of Commedia dell arte and Purimshpil in the Works of Moyshe Broderzon David Bellos In the Worst Possible Taste Romain Gary s Dance of Genghis Cohn Florian Krobb Muthwillige Faschingstracht The Presence of Yiddish in Nineteenth Century German Literature Ritchie Robertson Kafka s Encounter with the Yiddish Theatre David Groiser Translating Yiddish Martin Buber and David Pinski Mikhail Krutikov Yiddish Author as Cultural Mediator Meir Wiener s Unpublished Novel David Midgley The Romance of the East Encounters of German Jewish Writers with Yiddish Speaking Communities 1916 27 PolO Dochartaigh Intimacy and Alienation Yiddish in the
