Twentieth-Century Mexico Wil G. Pansters,Benjamin T. Smith,2024-11-15 This work brings together a new generation of drug historians and new historical sources to uncover the history of the drug trade and its regulations While the US and Mexican governments developed anti drug discourses and policies which criminalized both high profile traffickers and small time addicts these authorities also employed the criminals and cash connected to the drug trade to pursue more pressing political concerns The politics socioeconomic relations and criminal justice system of modern Mexico have been shaped by these public and covert policies as well as by subnational histories of drug production and trafficking The essays in this study explore this complicated narrative and provide insight into Mexico s history and the wider contemporary global drug trade

The United States and the Armed Forces of Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean, 2000-2014 René De La Pedraja,2014-11-05 Tracing the U S government s efforts to shape the armed forces of Mexico Central America and the Caribbean from 2000 to 2014 this narrative concentrates on the Army but also discusses Air Force and naval forces including the Marines and the Coast Guard Police forces in those regions are also covered Mexico s ongoing struggle with drug cartels is discussed extensively Venezuela and Cuba receive considerable attention This study is the first to examine in detail the armed forces of countries such as the Dominican Republic and Jamaica Sections on Haiti and Panama countries supposedly without armies reveal the decisive role the U S has played in determining their military policies The text weaves the histories of these armed forces into the broader context of the politics economics and international relations in the region A clear and brief introduction to the relations of Mexico Central America and the Caribbean with the United States is provided The Handbook of Homeland Security Scott N. GEORGE W. GRAYSON,2025-05-22 La Familia Michoacana burst onto the national stage on September 6 2006 when ruffians crashed into the seedy Sol y Sombra nightclub in Uruapan Michoac n and fired shots into the air They screamed at the revelers to lie down ripped open a plastic bag and lobbed five human heads onto the beer stained black and white dance floor The day before these macabre pyrotechnics the killers seized their prey from a mechanic s shop and hacked off their heads with bowie knives while the men writhed in pain You don t do something like that unless you want to send a big message said a U S law enforcement official speaking on condition of anonymity about an act of human depravity that would cast a pall over the darkest nooks of hell The desperados left behind a note hailing their act as divine justice adding that The Family doesn t kill for money it doesn t kill women it doesn t kill innocent people only those who deserve to die die Everyone should know this is divine justice While claiming to do the Lord s work the ruthless leaders of this syndicate have emerged as the dominant exporter of methamphetamines to the United States even as they control scores of municipalities in Michoac n and neighboring states This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Mexico June S Beittel,2020-01-04 Mexican drug trafficking organizations DTOs pose the greatest crime threat to the United States and have the greatest drug trafficking influence according to the annual U S Drug Enforcement Administration s DEA s National Drug Threat Assessment These organizations work across the Western Hemisphere and globally They are involved in extensive money laundering bribery gun trafficking and corruption and they cause Mexico s homicide rates to spike They produce and traffic illicit drugs into the United States including heroin methamphetamine marijuana and powerful synthetic opioids such as fentanyl and they traffic South American cocaine Over the past decade Congress has held numerous hearings addressing violence in Mexico U S counternarcotics assistance and border security issues Mexican DTO activities significantly affect the security of both the United States and Mexico As Mexico s DTOs expanded their control of the opioids market U S overdoses rose sharply to a record level in 2017 with more than half of the 72 000 overdose deaths 47 000 involving opioids Although preliminary 2018 data indicate a slight decline in overdose deaths many analysts believe trafficking continues to evolve toward opioids The major Mexican DTOs also referred to as transnational criminal organizations TCOs have continued to diversify into such crimes as human smuggling and oil theft while increasing their lucrative business in opioid supply According to the Mexican government s latest estimates illegally siphoned oil from Mexico s state owned oil company costs the government about 3 billion annually Mexico s DTOs have been in constant flux In 2006 four DTOs were dominant the Tijuana Arellano Felix organization AFO the Sinaloa Cartel the Ju rez Vicente Carrillo Fuentes Organization CFO and the Gulf Cartel Government operations to eliminate DTO leadership sparked organizational changes which increased instability among the groups and violence Over the next dozen years Mexico s large and comparatively more stable DTOs fragmented creating at first seven major groups and then nine which are briefly described in this report The DEA has identified those nine organizations as Sinaloa Los Zetas Tijuana AFO Ju rez CFO Beltr n Leyva Gulf La Familia Michoacana the Knights Templar and Cartel Jalisco New Generation CJNG In mid 2019 leader of the long dominant Sinaloa Cartel Joaquin El Chapo Guzm n was sentenced to life in a maximum security U S prison spurring further fracturing of a once hegemonic DTO By some accounts a direct effect of this fragmentation has been escalated levels of violence Mexico s intentional homicide rate reached new records in 2017 and 2018 In 2019 Mexico s national public security system reported more than 17 000 homicides between January and June setting a new record In the last months of 2019 several fragments of formerly cohesive cartels conducted flagrant acts of violence For some Members of Congress this situation has increased concern about a policy of returning Central American migrants to cities across the border in Mexico to await their U S asylum hearings in areas with some of Mexico s highest homicide rates Mexican President Andr s Manuel L pez Obrador elected in a landslide in July 2018 campaigned on fighting corruption and finding new ways to combat crime including the drug trade According to some analysts challenges for L pez Obrador since his inauguration include a persistently ad hoc approach to security the absence of strategic and tactical intelligence concerning an increasingly fragmented multipolar and opaque criminal market and endemic corruption of Mexico s judicial and law enforcement systems In December 2019 Genero Garcia Luna a former top security minister under the Felipe Calder n Administration 2006 2012 was arrested in the United States on charges he had taken enormous bribes from the Sinaloa Cartel
