Harmony and Contrast, the female impact (A story), Book2 Antoine Archange Raphael, 2014-07-03 Yolanda five years before offered her body to Peter as a new untouched temple to worship daily Actually according to her own words she gave him a safe and sound body an ingenuous soul and untapped passion Her lover is the concretion of all the good things she wants from a man Her passion almost caused his death Fortunately another Venus a nurse called Fay pulled him from the darkness of coma and the claws of death They get married and intend to live happily ever after Suddenly five years later Yolanda coming from nowhere has returned and donated the same burning temple to Peter Would that love reiteration end up in another disaster

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators

Pier Paolo Pasolini for art history and practice Ara H. Merjian, 2025-12-16 Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922-1975 remains best known for his influential cinematic and literary works These attest in turn to a crucial early formation Pasolini's intermittent practice as a painter critic and historian of art Spanning the fifth century BCE to the early twenty first century this volume s chapters reflect the breadth of Pasolini s aesthetic commitments and predilections from Greek Attic vase painting to the to the spread of Caravaggism from folkloric ethnography to the painting of Pablo Picasso and Andy Warhol Alongside essays examining his influence on twentieth and twenty first century aesthetics artists of different nationality gender and generation address Pasolini s continued consequence for their own work The very notion of a politically engaged artistic practice owes a debt to Pasolini s oeuvre one he called extravagantly interdisciplinary and which finds incisive reflection in the media methods and subjects addressed in these pages
