Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials

Educational and Social Research draws upon a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches to consider the problems that can arise when research findings diverge from political directions for policy Chapters explore the impacts this can have on the researchers as well as the influence it has on the research including the methodology and the publication of results The book offers innovative ways of seeing how these connect overlap and interact revealing particular issues of concern for researchers and evaluators in the context of research internationally Key topics include the power and positioning of research evidence based policy development ethics and the importance of research that seeks to explore and discover knowledge The book is divided into two sections The first presents chapters from international academics which provide a theoretical underpinning and discussion of power policy ethics and their influence on research resourcing autonomy purpose and methodology The second section explores specific case studies and instances from the authors own experiences in the field This book offers an interesting and enlightening insight into the sometimes political nature of research and will appeal to researchers evaluators and postgraduate students in the fields of education and the social sciences It will be of particular interest to those studying research methods The ^AOxford Handbook of Assessment Policy and Practice in Music Education, Volume 2 Timothy Brophy,2019-01-02 In this two volume Handbook contributors from across the globe provide expert perspectives on the assessment measurement and evaluation of student learning in music Trust-Based Observations Craig Randall,2020-07-30 The results are in observations are not improving teaching and learning Pertinently the Gates Foundation s recently completed effort to improve student outcomes through enhancing the teacher evaluation process failed to achieve substantive improvement The way observations are currently designed serve as an obstacle to teacher risk taking Teachers fear negative evaluations when their pedagogy is rated and they lack faith in being supported by supervisors because a trusting relationship between them and their observer has not been built Trust Based Observations Maximizing Teaching and Learning Growth is a schema changing evaluation model that understands people perform at their best when they feel safe and supported It begins with twelve 20 minute observations per week followed by collegial conversations driven by reflective questions sharing observed teaching strengths and the building of safe and trusting relationships with teachers Add the elimination of rating pedagogical skills and replace it with rating mindset and teachers trust When teachers fully embrace risk taking and innovation it leads to remarkable teaching
