

Question 4 Model

- Both texts 2 and 3 use strong, vivid language but for different effects. In text 3, strong language is used throughout the piece. For example, when the pair are approaching the valley, it states that 'Panic entered the hearts of both of them'. This strong language helps the reader imagine their emotions more strongly. It shows that they were absolutely terrified, emphasised by the strong noun 'panic', and this means that the reader is more likely to empathise with the characters and be gripped by the story.
- Text 2 also uses strong language, in the final paragraph. An example is where it mentions the families' fear that a 'media onslaught' will 'overwhelm' the men when they 'escape from their underground dungeon'. As with text 3, this shows fear, but this time from the families of those involved, rather than the individuals themselves. Using the metaphor 'underground dungeon' to describe their location is striking. It carries associations of punishment and suffering, even though the miners have done nothing wrong. As a result, the readers empathise strongly with the miners and their families, and feeling glad that they are likely to escape.

Measuring Student Knowledge and Skills Andreas Schleicher,Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. Directorate for Education, Employment, Labour, and Social Affairs. Statistics and Indicators Division,Programme for International Student Assessment,1999 Measuring student knowledge and skills a new framework for assessment Metaphor Translation in Popular Science Sui He,2024-12-30 This book explores the intersection of metaphor studies and translation studies specifically focusing on popular scientific articles The volume complements existing work on conceptual metaphor theory in translation by aligning it with conceptual blending theory to demonstrate how an integrated approach offers a more expansive understanding of the cognitive and linguistic dimensions of metaphor translation. It includes an essential introduction to the key concepts and theories in metaphor studies and metaphor translation research, discerning the importance of localising theories from neighbouring disciplines such as metaphor studies for advancing interdisciplinary research in translation studies. Sui He applies this approach to popular cosmological discourse, analysing examples from articles in Scientific American and their Chinese translations, allowing for a nuanced examination of translation strategies adopted by translators at both cognitive and linguistic levels, which presents the circulation and transformation of popular cosmological knowledge from English in two Chinese mediated communities. This book will be of interest to students and scholars in translation studies, metaphor studies and discourse analysis. The Complete Guide to Becoming an English Teacher Stephen Clarke, Paul Dickinson, Jo Westbrook, 2004-03-22. I could not help but admire the breadth and scope of this text. This is a book I would recommend to all, no matter what route they take to train as a teacher of English. It is aimed at secondary teachers but would be equally useful for those preparing to teach in further education. Not only does it provide concise and balanced accounts of key pedagogic issues, it also includes a range of interesting and engaging lesson suggestions. This book does cover a lot of ground with excellent chapters on planning, assessment, teaching reading and teaching poetry. This is a text that should accompany every student teacher of English and find its way on to the shelf of all practising teachers. This book excited me. It is written in a style that makes you want to try out activities and take up challenges. This book will encourage the student teacher to embrace the subject of English along with its associated values and debates. ESCalate. Read the full review as posted on the ESCalate website, the Education Subject Centre for the Higher Education Academy. If I was training to teach English today, this is the book I would want. An extraordinarily professional handbook of good practice. Compiled by a team of university lecturers, it admirably demonstrates the way theory and practice can combine to illuminate the varied demands of being an English Teacher today. Geoff Barton, Times Educational Supplement Teacher Magazine. I was most impressed. Anyone following the modules as they are would learn a huge amount and benefit so much from them. Donna Bryant, Deputy Head, Camborne School and Community College, Cornwall. The activities were both challenging and rewarding. These would be useful and would promote self-reflection and the notions of personal progression and goal setting for the student. Alan Jones, Assistant Headteacher, Simon Langton Boys School, Canterbury. This is a complete guide to how to become a successful teacher of English in secondary school. The book enables readers to design a tailor-made programme to suit their individual needs as a student teacher. Either the learner or the tutor can select or combine units and activities, and there is no assumption of prior knowledge. This book is based on innovative teaching material developed by four institutions of higher education which has been used to develop student teachers Based on proven teaching success and the authors own experiences of teaching English in secondary schools the book s key features include full coverage of the Revised Standards for Qualified Teacher Status including creative approaches to delivering the framework for teaching English years 7 8 and 9 the cultural historical social and political models which support the English teaching curriculum English teaching for the development of an on going working pedagogy recognizing the need for dialogue and interaction with both theory and practice Inclusion Equal Opportunities Assessment and ICT included throughout with recognition of the importance of digital literacies This is an essential book for English student teachers on flexible graduate registered training schemes and traditional PGCE programmes It is an essential resource guide for their tutors for practising English teachers who want to update their skills and for those doing Continuing Professional Development Diplomas Masters Level work or PhDs
