Killing With Kindness:

Killing with Kindness Mark Schuller, 2012-09-24 Winner of the 2015 Margaret Mead Award from the American Anthropological Association and the Society for Applied Anthropology After Haiti's 2010 earthquake over half of U.S. households donated to thousands of nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) in that country. Yet we continue to hear stories of misery from Haiti. Why have NGOs failed at their mission? Set in Haiti during the 2004 coup and aftermath and enhanced by research conducted after the 2010 earthquake Killing with Kindness analyzes the impact of official development aid on recipient NGOs and their relationships with local communities. Written like a detective story, the book offers rich ethnographic comparisons of two Haitian women's NGOs working in HIV/AIDS prevention: one with public funding including USAID, the other with private European NGO partners. Mark Schuller looks at participation and autonomy, analyzing donor policies that inhibit these goals. He focuses on NGOs' roles as intermediaries in gluing the contemporary world system together and shows how power works within the aid system as these intermediaries impose interpretations of unclear mandates down the chain, a process Schuller calls trickle-down imperialism.

Putnam's Complete Book of Quotations, Proverbs and Household Words Sir William Gurney Benham, 1929

Daimonic Imagination Patrick Curry, William Rowlandson, 2013-07-16 From the artistic genius to the tarot reader, a sense of communication with another order of reality is commonly affirmed; this other may be termed god, angel, spirit, muse, daimon, or alien, or it may be seen as an aspect of the human imagination or the unconscious in a psychological sense. This volume of essays celebrates the daimonic presence in a diversity of manifestations, presenting new insights into inspired creativity and human beings' relationship with mysterious and numinous dimensions of reality. In art and literature, many visual and poetic forms have been given to the daimonic intelligence, and in the realm of new age practices, encounters with spirit beings are facilitated through an increasing variety of methods, including shamanism, hypnotherapy, mediumship, and psychedelics. The contributors to this book are not concerned with proving or disproving the existence of such beings. Rather, they paint a broad canvas with many colours, evoking the daimon through the perspectives of history, literature, encounter, and performance, and showing how it informs and has always informed human experience.
