

Writing an IRAC Legal Exam

Overview: Now that we've had some practice in class addressing the constitutionality of police searches and seizures, it's time to begin writing opinions of our own. Although there is a rather strict formula to follow when writing an answer to a 4th Amendment case, there is no right answer, the best answers are those that are argued best using key details from the case, solid reasoning to support your claims, and proper application of past case law to further support your claims.

The Formula: Follow IRAC. It is critical you answer in complete sentences, in paragraph format, and provide reasoning for your claims. Your reasoning should stem from the facts of the case. When in doubt, use direct quotations of relevant facts and case law.

ISSUE:

- State the relevant facts of the case. Recount the specific moments of the facts of the case that relate to the legal question at hand. Omit all irrelevant info to the issue at hand.
- Identify the legal question presented to the Court. Do not paraphrase the legal question

RULE:

- What previous cases have we read share similarities with the Issue presented in this case?
  - o Notice how the Supreme Court usually poses a short question as a Rule. For example: The Rule for when a school official may conduct a search of a student requires that the search must be 'reasonable.' Reasonableness is determined by asking two questions: was there reasonable suspicion to search, and was the conduct of the search appropriate in scope? (Paraphrased from New Jersey v. TLO)
- Identify the relevant Rule with a direct quote. You may paraphrase this Rule only after you've provided a direct quote.

ANALYSIS/APPLICATION:

Your analysis should use two pieces of information: one is the facts of the case (Issue); the other piece will be a previous case ruling (Rule). The first piece is straightforward. The second piece of information requires you to think about all of the events in the case at hand and try to APPLY those events to a Ruling from a case dealing with very similar, but not identical, circumstances.

Example: You're presented with a case where a student is petitioning a case against their teacher: "Petitioner contends his right to an unreasonable search and seizure was violated when the defendant opened and thoroughly searched petitioner's bag during a wholly silent in-class work session, only to pull out a small bag of odorless cocaine. When a school official conducts a search of a student, they must, '... restate direct quote of Rule...' (citation). Based on the fact that, '...relevant facts of the case quote...' it is clear that the defendant did not establish any reasonable suspicion to conduct the search.

CONCLUSION:

Directly answer the legal question. Touch on each relevant Rule you Applied to reach your final Conclusion to the legal question.

How to Write Law Essays and Exams S. I. Strong, 2018 How to Write Law Essays and Exams provides law students with a practical and proven method of analysing and answering essay and exam questions. The book focuses on those questions that give students the most trouble, namely problem questions, but its techniques are equally applicable to other types of essays. In addition to providing a framework for analysing and writing law essays, the book teaches students how to identify relevant legal authorities, distinguish and harmonise conflicting legal precedents, and evaluate the applicability of the law to the facts of the question at hand. The book also contains specific law-related revision techniques and general writing tips. Designed for law students of all levels, including those on A-level, university conversion, and vocational courses, the text helps students understand their substantive courses while, at the same time, teaching vital writing and analytical skills. Online Resources: The book is accompanied by online resources, including a case breakdown to help students with reading cases frequently asked questions and some tips on citation styles and conventions.

A+ Guides to Legal Studies Boxed Set Alison Plus, 2016-11-30. Legal writing can be challenging for many reasons. The language is complex; the concepts are even more complex, and you will be expected to manipulate both the language and the complex while adhering to specific writing formats. But there is help available. The Legal Studies Boxed Set contains the three Alison Plus Guides to Writing for the three types of legal documents most legal studies and paralegal students will have to write: demand letters, case briefs, and internal legal memos. Each document type has different challenges and goals, but now one collection makes all three writing guides available in one boxed set. Here are each of the three writing guides contained in this boxed set:

Applied Data Science Douglas G. Woolford, Donna Kotsopoulos, Boba Samuels, 2023-05-09. The use of data to guide action is growing. Even the public uses data to guide everyday decisions. How do we develop data acumen across a broad range of fields and varying levels of expertise? How do we foster the development of effective data translators? This book explores these questions, presenting an interdisciplinary collection of edited contributions across fields such as education, health sciences, natural sciences, politics, economics, business, and management studies, social sciences, and humanities. Authors illustrate how to use data within a discipline, including visualization and analysis, translating and communicating results, and pedagogical considerations This book is of interest to scholars and anyone looking to understand the use of data science across disciplines It is ideal in a course for non data science majors exploring how data translation occurs in various contexts and for professionals looking to engage in roles requiring data translation     A Collection of Technical Papers ,1974     Law School Exams Charles R. Calleros,2007 Well written and highly accessible this concise paperback guides law students step by step through procedures that will help them take exams successfully the author s style is accessible and reassuring recognizing that law students operate under severe time constraints he makes his points clearly and concisely starting with creative examples and illustrations in familiar nonlegal contexts the author introduces students to new concepts by analogy and then advances to more complex legal examples exercises and practice exams with a focus on essay questions and model answers help students identify their strengths and weaknesses plan strategies and organize their efforts the author addresses techniques for maximizing scores on several types of essay questions as well as on multiple choice and other objective questions the author helps students understand why the typical law school essay question requires a balanced analysis with arguments for both sides rather than identification of a clear answer assignments and exercises facilitate active learning In addition to teaching students analysis and exam taking skills Law School Exams Preparing and Writing to Win addresses exam anxiety with a helpful positive perspective The author helps students understand that a small degree of anxiety can serve as a productive motivator helps students learn how to reduce anxiety to a productive level by placing exams into proper perspective by preparing thoroughly and by adopting stress management techniques such as stretching meditation or motivational music     How to Write Law Essays & Exams S.
