Manual On Public Procurement Complaint Procedure:

Public Procurement and Human Rights Olga Martin-Ortega, Claire Methven O'Brien, 2019 This timely work reflects on the role and obligations of the state as a buyer of goods and services from the dual disciplinary perspectives of public procurement and human rights Through theoretical and doctrinal analyses and practice focused case studies it interrogates the evolving character of public procurement as an interface for multiple normative regimes and competing policies Challenging the prevailing paradigm which subordinates human rights to narrowly defined economic goals insightful contributions advance a compelling case for greater inter disciplinaryity and policy coherence as crucial to realising international policies such as those embodied in the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and 2030 Sustainable Development Goals

State and Local Government Procurement National Association of State Procurement Officials (NASPO), 2019-06-05 The National Association of State Procurement Officials is proud to make the State and Local Government Procurement A Practical Guide 3rd Edition available to government professionals students suppliers educators and others interested in learning about public procurement Whether you are a seasoned procurement professional or new to the field this guide should provide you a valuable reference tool in your efforts This edition of NASPO's flagship guide features many changes improvements and additional content This 3rd Edition of State Local Government A Practical Guide hereafter referred to as Practical Guide identifies the current and rapidly changing forces that are encountered by state or local government procurement officers and suggests ways in which they may be addressed The text also describes the principles and practices that are at the heart of a procurement system that must remain both flexible and accountable A combination of the factors that are discussed in the pages of this Practical Guide indicates that the challenges that public procurement officers are facing are rapidly evolving State and local central procurement offices are obliged to find creative and innovative ways to adapt to new situations while still upholding traditional legal and ethical standards There are several differences between this and the second edition Issues such as the procurement of information technology IT sustainability principles in procurement and the use of eProcurement systems have been updated Additionally the narratives relating to the bones of the state and local government procurement process such as procurement planning source selection methods evaluation of bids and proposals quality assurance and contract management have been significantly expanded Each chapter of this Practical Guide includes a comprehensive list of recommended best practices that are pertinent to that chapter's topic Lists of recommended topics for statutory and regulatory coverage have been eliminated in favor of more practical best practices lists A comprehensive list of the resources that were used in the text of this Practical Guide is noted for each chapter through endnotes citing those resources There is a significant increase in cross referencing within each chapter to demonstrate the interrelationships among the various subject matter Many of the changes in this edition are aimed at providing foundational definitions and explanatory overviews to benefit those readers who have no knowledge of state and local government procurement      Gabon International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept.,2020-06-08 In response to a request from the Gabonese authorities a mission from the Fiscal Affairs Department of the IMF visited Libreville to conduct an evaluation of public investment management using the Public Investment Management Assessment methodology The report highlights that enhancing the efficiency of public investment is essential given Gabon s current budget constraints Improving public investment management PIM should help stem the declines in public investment efficiency in Gabon In terms of infrastructure quality public investment efficiency has fallen to half of the expected optimal level compared to a 20 percent decline both worldwide and in Sub Saharan Africa as well as a 31 percent decline in member states of the Central African Economic and Monetary Union The findings of the PIM assessment reveal structural deficiencies in planning procedures and institutional arrangements Eight recommendations are put forward to enhance PIM efficiency in the short and medium terms with three urgent steps needed to rationalize planning      Financial Management for Local Government Kay Spearman,2019-08-08 This series is designed to cover all aspects of sound financial management for local governments in developed and developing countries and economies in transition Concepts of good governance transparency and accountability are woven into the text of every chapter and the needs and potential obstacles to greater decentralization and democracy are highlighted Each volume is self contained with its own Trainer s Guide exercises and web resources Chapters are divided into basic and advanced concepts and the detailed relationship of each topic to the others covered in the series is explained      Botswana Taxation Laws and Regulations Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Regulations IBP, Inc.,2017-01-04 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually Botswana Taxation Laws and Regulations Handbook      OECD Investment Policy Reviews: Nigeria 2015 OECD,2015-05-21 This Investment Policy Review examines Nigeria s investment policies in light of the OECD Policy Framework for Investment PFI a tool to mobilise investment in support of economic growth and sustainable development      Georgia International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept.,2018-11-07 The Government s decision to strengthen the infrastructure governance through improving the public investment management PIM and the public private partnerships PPPs frameworks is both timely and important The government has an ambitious public investment agenda to be implemented both through traditional public investment and with the help of private investors in the form of PPPs Given the need to preserve fiscal sustainability in a context of limited fiscal space avoiding inefficiencies and managing fiscal costs and risks arising from infrastructure projects will be crucial for advancing the government s public investment agenda The authorities are working on a broad range of public financial management reforms including improving the PIM framework and the legal and regulatory framework for PPPs and PPAs Over the last decade public investment in Georgia has been similar to the average of emerging market economies EMEs Since the mid 2000s public investment accounted on average for one third of total investment Public investment remained volatile reaching a peak of 8.6 percent of GDP in 2007 declining in the aftermath of large global and regional shocks and
