Dorothy Noyes,2012-03-07 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Fire in the Placa is the first full length study in English of the Patum a Corpus Christi fire festival unique to Berga Catalonia Spain celebrated annually since the seventeenth century Participants in the festival are transformed through drink sleep deprivation crowding constant motion and the smoke and sparks of close range firecrackers into passionate members of a precarious body politic Combining richly layered symbolism with intense bodily expression the Patum has long served as a grassroots equivalent of grand social theory it moves from a representation of social divisions to a forcible communion among them The Patum s dancing effigies giants dwarves Turks and Christian knights devils and angels a crowned eagle and two flaming mule dragons have provided local allegories for a long series of political conflicts but the festival obscures its own messages in smoke and motion to enable a temporary merging of opposites Activists in the 1970s transition to democracy in Spain took the Patum as a model of how old adversaries might collaborate it helped to shape the mix of assertiveness in performance and compromise in practice that is typical of contemporary Catalan nationalism The Patum became a focus of resistance to the Franco regime and drew visitors from all over Catalonia serving as a rehearsal for the mass protests in Barcelona Later it provided the newly autonomous region with a vehicle for integrating immigrants and a vocabulary of belonging culminating in the Patum derived devils of the closing ceremonies of the 1992 Olympic games Today as mines and factories have closed in Berga the Patum serves as an arena in which provincial Catalans model their relationship to Barcelona Europe and the world and reflects their ambivalence about the choices open to them Seeking a third way between tourism and terrorism provincial towns like Berga show us the future of all local communities under globalization In collective performances such as the Patum tensions between cultural and political representation are made visible and the gap between aspiration and possibility is both bridged and acknowledged In this exceptionally rich ethnographic study Dorothy Noyes explores the predicament of provincial communities striving to overcome internal conflict and participate in a wider world El palio José M.
