John Brown Confessions Of A New Army Candidate:

John Brown Captain R. W. Campbell ,2014-12-25 Example in this ebook CHAPTER I THE CADET SCHOOL No doubt you have seen in the highways and byways a lot of youths in khaki with white bands round their caps These boys are called cadets and are usually men home from the front to train for commissions In Sandhurst they are officially styled gentlemen cadets but apparently we are not supposed to be gentlemen we re just cadets Funny isn t it But that s the way of the army Well my name is John Brown a very ordinary name and I m one of those fellows Before the war I evaded toil by becoming a student and spent a lot of time on ologies and osophies Now I m learning to be a pukka officer and the leader of sixty men to the cannon s mouth When I left my battalion for the cadet school I shed no tears They were in the trenches or rather in the mud And it cost a pair of brand new boots to get on to the road However I survived and in due time landed at Windmoor This is a blasted heath swept by the winds and isolated from picture shows barmails and revues not a petticoat in sight and at every corner a notice which amounts to England expects that every cadet this day will do his duty This is no Utopia I muttered falling into the first hut by the way Ye gods There was an old colonel with eyes like a hawk and cheeks like dumplings and what do you think he was doing Cutting his corns What the why the who the devil are you sah John Brown sir I said meekly for never in my life had I seen such a perfect relic of the Napoleonic wars Get to blazes out of this John Brown he roared putting his fat feet on the floor and banging the door I was again alone on the blasted heath The old gent inside was Colonel Eat All the commandant Rumour says he devoured two dervishes at Omdurman I stumbled on once more and found the orderly room This way said Sergeant Major Kneesup introducing me to the adjutant I clicked my heels in the style of a Guardsman and saluted like a railway signal Well said a blas looking gent with three pips looking up at me from his papers John Brown sir Who sent you here The War Office Umph I know nothing about you You had better go back to your regiment for your papers But I can t go all the way to France sir Well no perhaps not Wait a minute he said ringing a bell A clerk answered Have you any papers dealing with Cadet John Brown Yes sir Came a fortnight ago Thank you That s all The clerk went out Oh it s all right Brown Just go over to No 1 Company You ll see Sergeant Major Smartem there He ll fix you up Good luck he concluded with a genial smile I saluted and went out marvelling at the methods of the British Army I dug out the sergeant major and again announced that I was John Brown That s a fine name to go to bed with It s the one my mother gave me Oh well you can t help it Here s your blankets there s your bed You ll get your equipment to morrow Shove this white band on your cap Tea s at five o clock The lavatory s down there That s the canteen over yonder And when you want writing paper hymns or free salvation there s a Y M C A down the road Now push off John Brown I was extremely grateful for all this information in tabloid form but I had a lurking suspicion that my name was going to be a subject of rude jest However I am an optimist I pitched my bag into a corner of the hut pulled out a little book called The Pleasures of Hope and commenced to read till tea time But I was disturbed Cadet after cadet came filing in They were all new and rather green except one man called Beefy Jones What a ruddy place for a cadet school he roared My dear chap it is designed to protect our morality muttered a spectacled youth who looked like and proved to be an ex parson To be continue in this ebook John Brown R W Campbell,2016-05-08 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant John Brown R.
