Joas Special Edition 2013:

Transforming Warriors Peter Haldén, Peter Jackson, 2016-05-12 This volume offers an interdisciplinary study of how different cultures have sought to transform individuals into warriors War changes people however a less explored question is how different societies want people to change as they are turned into warriors When societies go to war they recognize that a boundary is being crossed The participants are expected to do things that are otherwise prohibited or at least governed by different rules This edited volume analyses how different cultures have conceptualized the transformations of an individual passing from a peacetime to a wartime existence to become an active warrior Despite their differences all societies grapple with the same question how much of the individual's peace self should be and can be retained in the state of war The book explores cases such as the Nordic berserkers the Japanese samurai and European knights as well as modern soldiers in Germany Liberia and Sweden It shows that archaic and modern societies are more similar than we usually think both kinds of societies use myths symbols and rituals to create warriors Thus this volume seeks to redefine theories of modernization and secularization It shows that military organizations need to take myths symbols and rituals seriously in order to create effective units This book will be of much interest to students of military studies war studies sociology religion and international relations in general

Normativity and Power Rainer Forst, 2017-10-20 Humans are justificatory beings they offer demand and require justifications The rules and institutions they follow rest on justification narratives that have evolved over time and taken together constitute a dynamic and tension laden normative order In this collection of essays the first translation into English of the ground breaking Normativität und Macht Suhrkamp 2015 Rainer Forst presents a new approach to critical theory Each essay reflects on the basic principles that guide our normative thinking Forst's argument goes beyond ideal and realist theories and shows how closely the concepts of normativity and power are interrelated and how power rests on the capacity to influence determine and possibly restrict the space of justifications for others By combining insights from the disciplines of philosophy history and the social sciences Forst re-evaluates theories of justice as well as of power and provides the tools for a critical theory of relations of justification

Education and International Development, 2000-2020 Ian Wash, 2024-08-22 Education and International Development 2000-2020 A Constructivist Critique of the One size fits all Liberal Model advances the claim that there exists a liberal theory of international education Ian Wash argues that the assumed harmony of this model is the main source of dispute in the field of education and international development The liberal thinking behind the aspirations for education the political levers necessary for its effective governance and the ideas behind the policies all have contributed towards growing tensions that prevented international education from achieving optimal functionality Through a qualitative discourse analysis of the key policy documents produced between 2000 and 2020 Wash reveals how the liberal model was discursively constructed as a grand narrative of three acts that chronicles the vision process and outcomes of international education Such a rendering brings an understanding of the hidden conflicts essential for finding a resolution to this policy puzzle thereby improving the prosperity and wellbeing of those in poorer countries A 'Macro-regional' Europe in the Making Stefan Gänzle, Kristine Kern, 2015-10-19 Macro regional strategies seek to improve the interplay of the EU with existing regimes and institutions and foster coherence of transnational policies Drawing on macro regional governance and Europeanization this edited volume provides an overview of processes of macro regionalization in Europe displaying evidence of their significant impact

Habits Fausto Caruana, Italo Testa, 2020-12-03 This pragmatist interpretation of habits provides a unifying concept for 4E cognitive science neuroscience philosophy and social theory Future Viability, Business Models, and Values Friedrich Glauner, 2016-07-01 This book challenges the traditional models of modern economy business education and management which are devoted to the concepts of scarcity competition growth and yield It deconstructs the spiral of acceleration in which technological shifts concerning global markets and enterprises produce a dynamic of unbridled disruption concentration and erosion of human and natural resources The book analyzes how in the face of this dynamic once successful business models increasingly lead to existential jeopardy The book embeds its argument in the impact of technological change on strategy in general It subsequently analyzes the degree of rationality in the strategy building process to juxtapose revenue and responsibility as the fundamental principles of diverging strategic concepts In its central chapters the book explores the benefits of consciousness driven business models and value added strategies for the awareness markets of the future and their impact on team excellence and resource handling It develops an understanding of how corporations can function as ecosystems fostering the growth and development of the resources they operate on rather than being based on their exploitation Understanding this structure of viable future business models is the overall theme of this pioneering book This book endeavors to set out yet another paradigm for a viable economics the paradigm of ethicology It seeks to replace the concepts of competition scarcity and growth with strategies and business models based on resource creation added values cycles enrichment and symbiosis in line with the awareness economy it describes Hunter Lovins President and Founder of Natural Capitalism Solutions a very basic paradigm shift in our future strategies Henner Klein Chairman Emeritus A T Kearney The book stands right on the tectonic fault line between our old and our new reality It manages to do both analyze the shifting paradigms and provoke new thinking Dr Martin R Stuchtey Director of the McKinsey Center for Business Environment This book is raising the bar His vision dares to rethink the principles of the liberal and social market economy in a globalized business world Prof Dr Ren Schmidpeter CBS K In A book worth reading and reflecting on Onwards to an economy that works for 100% of humanity Michael Pirson Associate Professor Director Center for Humanistic Management Fordham University and Research Fellow Harvard University powerful arguments and practical guidance on how companies can become sustainable and live up to the realities of global enterprise Michael Hilti Hilti AG Memorialising the Holocaust in Human Rights Museums Katrin Antweiler, 2023-04-27 Honourable Mention in the Best First Book Award of the

Memory Studies Association 2025 This book provides an analysis of the forms and functions of Holocaust memorialisation in human rights museums by asking about the impact of global memory politics on how we imagine the present and the future It compares three human rights museums and their respective employment of the Holocaust and seeks to illuminate how in this specific setting memory politics simultaneously function as future politics because they delineate a normative ideal of the citizen subject its set of values and aspirations for the future that of the historically aware human rights advocate More than an ethical practice engaging with the Holocaust is used as a means of asserting one's standing on the right side of history the memorialisation of the Holocaust has thus become a means of governmentality a way of governing contemporary citizen subjects The linking of public memory of the Holocaust with the human rights project is often presented as highly beneficial for all members of what is often called the global community Yet this book argues that this specific constellation of memory also has the ability to function as an exercise of power and thus runs the risk of reinforcing structural oppression With its novel theoretical approach this book not only contributes to Memory Studies but also connects Holocaust memory to Studies of Global Governmentality and the debate on decolonising memory politics

Rethinking Democracy Promotion in International Relations Jessica Schmidt, 2015-08-20 This book traces and conceptualises the changing notion of democracy and demonstrates how democracy promotion finds itself at the heart of contemporary international discourses and policies Democracy promotion is widely considered to constitute a hypocritical and failed grand international narrative of the 1990s and has allegedly been replaced by other more pressing and academically more captivating concerns such as conflict management statebuilding and climate change This book challenges this position and argues that the core notions of democracy promotion such as empowerment inclusion and responsiveness are a key concern of contemporary international policymakers Drawing on the work of Michel Foucault Hannah Arendt as well as John Dewey it investigates the notion of democracy and modality of its promotions through the policy fields of conflict management statebuilding and climate change The central development the book observes is the reconceptualisation of democracy from the constituted sphere of the public to the lived relations of the social The book argues that the novel rationality of democracy and its promotion offers a particular solution to governing impasses in a world perceived to be globalised and complex which accounts for democracy's current but neglected centrality This book will be of much interest to students of democracy intervention statebuilding global governance and IR in general
