A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red and then into the white background of the slide.

John Constable The Making Of A Master:

John Constable Mark Evans, 2014-10-21 Published to accompany an exhibition held at the Victoria and Albert Museum London September 20 2014 January 11 2015 Constable's Skies Mark Evans, 2018-08-14 A beautiful gift sized volume celebrating Constable's enduring fascination and engagement with the sky John Constable was one of the supreme painters of the weather and his depictions of the sky are essential components of all his landscape paintings from famous works such as The Hay Wain and Salisbury Cathedral from the Meadows to his numerous cloud studies painted on Hampstead Heath culminating in paintings that are all sky the landscape beneath is completely absent In a letter to friend John Fisher written in 1821 Constable commented That landscape painter who does not make his skies a very material part of his composition neglects to avail himself of one of his greatest aids It will be difficult to name a class of landscape in which the sky is not the key note the standard of scale and the chief organ of sentiment Written by Mark Evans a leading authority on the work of John Constable and brimming with beautiful images Constable's Skies captures the artist's fascination with the sky and brings together his depictions of the English weather from throughout his career The unprecedented fidelity of Constable's painted skies is proven by reference to contemporary weather diaries The book also includes a guide to where to find Constable's work around the world Thomas Cole's Journey Elizabeth Mankin Kornhauser, Tim Barringer, 2018-01-29

Thomas Cole 1801 1848 is celebrated as the greatest American landscape artist of his generation Though previous scholarship has emphasized the American aspects of his formation and identity never before has the British born artist been presented as an international figure in direct dialogue with the major landscape painters of the age Thomas Cole's Journey emphasizes the artist's travels in England and Italy from 1829 to 1832 and his crucial interactions with such painters as Turner and Constable For the first time it explores the artist's most renowned paintings The Oxbow 1836 and The Course of Empire cycle 1834 36 as the culmination of his European experiences and of his abiding passion for the American wilderness The four essays in this lavishly illustrated catalogue examine how Cole's first hand knowledge of the British industrial revolution and his study of the Roman Empire positioned him to create works that offer a distinctive even dissident response to the economic and political rise of the United States the ecological and economic changes then underway and the dangers that faced the young nation A detailed chronology of Cole's life focusing on his European tour retraces the artist's travels as documented in his journals letters and sketchbooks providing new insight into his encounters and observations With discussions of over seventy works by Cole as well as by the artists he admired and influenced this book allows us to view his work in relation to his European antecedents and competitors demonstrating his major contribution to the history of Western art Old Masters Worldwide Susanna Avery-Quash, Barbara Pezzini, 2020-10-15 As a result of the Napoleonic wars vast numbers of Old Master paintings were released on to the market from public and private collections across continental Europe The knock on effect was the growth of the market for Old Masters from the 1790s up to the early 1930s when the Great Depression put an end to its expansion This book explores the global movement of Old Master paintings and investigates some of the changes in the art market that took place as a result of this new interest Arguably the most important phenomenon was the diminishing of the traditional figure of the art agent and the rise of more visible increasingly professional dealerships firms such as Colnaghi and Agnew s in Britain Goupil in France and Knoedler in the USA came into existence Old Masters Worldwide explores the ways in which the pioneering practices of such businesses contributed to shape a changing market Handbook of Entrepreneurship and Marketing Ian Fillis,Nick Telford,2020-07-31 This timely and incisive Handbook provides critical contemporary insights into the theory and practice of entrepreneurship and marketing in the twenty first century Bringing together rich and varied contributions from prominent international researchers it offers a reflective synthesis of scholarship at the interface between marketing and entrepreneurship John Constable James Hamilton,2022-11-01 A fresh and lively biography of the revolutionary landscape painter John Constable John Constable who captured the landscapes and skies of southern England in a way never before seen on canvas is beloved but little understood artist His paintings reflect visions of landscape that shocked and perplexed his contemporaries attentive to detail spontaneous in gesture brave in their use of color His landscapes show that he had sharp local knowledge of the environment His skyscapes show a clarity of expression rarely seen in other artist s work The figures within show an understanding of the human tides of his time And his late paintings of Salisbury Cathedral show a rare ability to transform silent suppressed passion into paint Constable was also an active and energetic correspondent His letters and diaries reveal a man of opinion passion and discord His letters also reveal the lives and circumstances of his extended family who serve to define the social and economic landscape against which he can be most clearly seen These multifaceted reflections draw a sharp picture of the person as well as the painter James Hamilton s biography reveals a complex and troubled man Hamilton s portrait explodes previous mythologies about this timeless artist and establishes him in his proper context as a giant of European art John Constable, 1776-1837 Frank Rutter,1924 Constable, a Master Draughtsman Dulwich Picture Gallery,1994 John Constable's Correspondence John Constable,1968 John Constable's Correspondence: The Fishers John Constable,1968 *Journal of Proceedings of the ... Biennial Convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Held in ...
