Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Telecommunications and the Internet, 2008 For Frying Out Loud Fay Jacobs, 2016-05-09 Fay Jacobs returns with more wise and witty recollections about life in Rehoboth Beach For Frying Out Loud is a collection of Fay s latest columns plus some new never published material It s provocative political occasionally heartwarming and reliably hilarious Jacobs utterly unique voice will keep you laughing smiling and relating page after page Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Product Design Jonathan Chapman, 2017-05-08 As a cultivated form of invention product design is a deeply human phenomenon that enables us to shape modify and alter the world around us for better or worse The recent emergence of the sustainability imperative in product design compels us to recalibrate the parameters of good design in an unsustainable age Written by designers for designers the Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Product Design presents the first systematic overview of the burgeoning field of sustainable product design Brimming with intelligent viewpoints critical propositions practical examples and rich theoretical analyses this book provides an essential point of reference for scholars and practitioners at the intersection of product design and sustainability The book takes readers to the depth of our engagements with the designed world to advance the social and ecological purpose of product design as a critical twenty first century practice Comprising 35 chapters across 6 thematic parts the book s contributors include the most significant international thinkers in this dynamic and evolving field Reassembling Rubbish Josh Lepawsky, 2018-04-13 An examination of the global trade and traffic in discarded electronics that reframes the question of the right thing to do with e waste The prevailing storyline about the problem of electronic waste frames e waste as generated by consumers in developed countries and dumped on people and places in developing countries In Reassembling Rubbish Josh Lepawsky offers a different view In an innovative analysis of the global trade and traffic in discarded electronics Lepawsky reframes the question of the right thing to do with e waste mapping the complex flows of electronic materials He counters the assumption that e waste is a post consumer problem pointing out that waste occurs at all stages of electronic materials existence and calls attention to the under researched world of reuse and repair Lepawsky explains that there are conflicting legal distinctions between electronic waste and non waste and examines a legal case that illustrates the consequences He shows that patterns of trade do not support the dominant narrative of e waste dumping but rather represent the dynamic ecologies of repair refurbishment and materials recovery He asks how we know waste how we measure it and how we construe it and how this affects our efforts to mitigate it We might not put so much faith in household recycling if we counted the more massive amounts of pre consumer electronic waste as official e waste Lepawsky charts the minescapes productionscapes and clickscapes of electronics and the uneven discardscapes they produce Finally he considers both conventional and unconventional e waste solutions including decriminalizing export for reuse repair and upgrade enabling ethical trade in electronics reuse repair refurbishment and recycling implementing extended producer responsibility and instituting robust forms of public oversight
