Memorandum Of Nsfas:

Engineers in a Developing Country Rènnette Du Toit,Joan Roodt,2009 The study provides a demographic analysis of employment trends across the public and private sectors of the economy and investigates the demand for engineers technologists and technicians in the workforce A comprehensive analysis of the educational context for engineering professionals focuses on enrolment graduation and throughput trends in all engineering disciplines at universities and universities of technology and reveals that although there have been positive innovations in education and training strategies in recent years many issues especially at secondary school level remain a challenge Women in engineering is a particular focus of this study which devotes a chapter to examining the factors that influence their choice of career the barriers they experience in the labour market and strategies for encouraging women into the profession This comprehensive monograph offers valuable quantitative and qualitative information about engineering capacity across all engineering disciplines in South Africa It is therefore an important reference for all engineering academics as well as decision makers in both the private and public sectors and will be useful to aspiring and current engineering students whatever their field PULP Guide: Finding legal information Shirley Gilmore,2014-08-05 The PULP Guide is aimed at assisting researchers who are based in South Africa and who have an interest in South African law to access the sources of the law Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation Rekgotsofetse Chikane,2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San Jacob Cloete,2023-11-22 The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San delves into the complex issue of problematic coloured identity and the ongoing erasure of the Khoekhoe and San people in South Africa Despite the end of apartheid this erasure continues to persist today starting as far back as 1652 There were two types of erasure that took place genocide and bureaucratic While the former is acknowledged by President Thabo Mbeki in his I Am an African speech the latter began in 1828 with Ordinance 50 in the Cape Colony From this point the Khoekhoe and San were bureaucratically erased culminating in the 1950 Population Registration Act Despite these attempts the Khoekhoe and San people resisted and fought for their identity resulting in their continued existence in the present day This book documents their painful journey highlighting their struggles against subjugation and erasure since 1652 Student Activism in the Global South Kurauone Masungu,2024-09-01 This book makes an original conceptual and empirical contribution to debates on the role of student activism in enhancing social justice within education in the Global South using South Africa as a case study The book explores the development of higher education students political capabilities through student activism that is the freedom to express political ideas and engage in protests including the following key capabilities participation dialogue practical reasoning voice emotional expression contextual knowledge and physical wellbeing The author considers the possibility of enhancing justice and democracy in higher education through the formation of such student freedoms The book will be of interest to academics and researchers in student activism higher education and social justice as well as institutional staff members with knowledge of student governance members of student representative councils and higher education administrators Annual Report Council on Higher Education (South Africa),2004

Digital inequality in a developing context Nobert R. Jere,Gardner Mwansa,Memory Ranga,Attlee M. Gamundani,Pardon B Maoneke,2025-04-15 Digital inequality in a developing context A multifaceted approach critically explores the complex and persistent nature of the digital divide in South Africa addressing a notable gap in existing scholarship Drawing on secondary data the book examines how digital inequalities manifest across key sectors such as education healthcare and agriculture sectors vital to national development and individual well being These disparities are shaped by intersecting socio economic technical and geographical factors particularly the urban rural divide The volume underscores the importance of infrastructure development digital literacy affordability and equitable access as central to bridging the digital gap It argues that without targeted and sustained interventions in these areas digital inequality will continue to hinder socio economic progress and deepen existing structural inequalities This scholarly book offers fresh perspectives and practical insights for researchers policymakers and practitioners seeking to advance digital inclusion in developing contexts

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen,2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink, Heidi Whitford, Natasha C. Stubbs, 2017-04-10 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction This issue explores The global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that focus on the development and implementation process of community colleges amid various social political and economic contexts This is the 177th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents vice presidents deans and other leaders in today s open door institutions New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission Annual Report South Africa.
