opera dates back to the silent era but it was not until the late 1980s that critical enquiries into the intersection of opera and cinema began to emerge Jeongwon Joe focusses primarily on the role of opera as soundtrack by exploring the distinct effects opera produces in film effects which differ from other types of soundtrack music such as jazz or symphony These effects are examined from three perspectives peculiar qualities of the operatic voice various properties commonly associated with opera

such as excess otherness or death and multifaceted tensions between opera and cinema for instance opera as live embodied high art and cinema as technologically mediated popular entertainment Joe argues that when opera excerpts are employed on soundtracks they tend to appear at critical moments of the film usually associated with the protagonists and the author explores why it is opera not symphony or jazz that accompanies poignant scenes like these Joe's film analysis focuses on the time period of the post 1970s which is distinguished by an increase of opera excerpts on soundtracks to blockbuster titles the commercial recognition of which promoted the production of numerous opera soundtrack CDs in the following years Joe incorporates an empirical methodology by examining primary sources such as production files cue sheets and unpublished interviews with film directors and composers to enhance the traditional hermeneutic approach The films analysed in her book include Woody Allen's Match Point David Cronenberg's M. Butterfly and Wong Kar wai's 2046 The Opera Lover's Companion Charles Osborne, 2007-01-01 Written by a well known authority this book consists of 175 entries that set some of the most popular operas within the context of their composer's career outline the plot discuss the music and more Les pêcheurs de perles Georges Bizet, Eugène Cormon, Michel Carré, 1908 Les Pecheurs de Perles Georges Bizet, 1908 Catalogue of (printed) music.
