

The Kite Runner

By Khaled Hosseini

SAMPLE ESSAY # 1

"The Kite Runner suggests that courage is central in shaping the individual." Discuss.

In a state of conflict and crisis Khaled Hosseini's The Kite Runner examines the human condition and the ways in which individuals deal with the circumstances they face. Through the experiences of the central characters Hosseini explored the role of courage in shaping the individual. As a result, it became evident that it is not only courage that is central to shaping the individual, but also one's cowardice.

The Kite Runner presents various differentiations of courage. Through the character of Hassan, Hosseini depicts a truly courageous individual, an individual who is willing to sacrifice himself for the wellbeing of others. Hassan is a loyal boy whose dedication to his friend, Amir, results in his horrific rape at the hand of another boy. Hassan's courage is evident prior to his rape as he often protected Amir from bullies and accepted the blame when he and Amir would get into trouble. It was Hassan's assurance, "For you [Amir] a thousand times over" (p.59) and his intent to stand by his word that demonstrated the extent of his courage.

Hassan not only defended Amir's kite, resulting in his rape, but he also allowed Amir to frame him for theft, forcing them to move away. "Then I [Amir] understood: this was Hassan's final sacrifice for me." (p.91) Hassan's courage extended beyond his courageous childhood acts, into his adulthood. Amir later learns that Hassan died protecting Baba's house, boldly confronting Taliban soldiers who were attempting to evict them from their home. Hassan was undoubtedly a courageous man whose bravery was a fundamental part of his character.

Hosseini also presents a man who used his conflicted past as a motivator for courage. Baba is a conflicted man, a man who committed what he believed to be the ultimate sin, theft. He stole his friend's wife and produced an illegitimate child who his friend believed to be his own. Baba taught his son Amir, "... there's only one sin, only one. And that is theft. Every other sin is a variation of theft." (p.16) At this point Baba is presented as an honest man who struggled his whole life to become the successful man he was considered. It also becomes obvious that Baba is a courageous man who stands up for what he believed; "Tell him I'll take a thousand bullets before I let this indecency take place." (p.101) Amir clearly depicts his father as a proud and courageous man, a man who "had wrestled bears his whole life." (p.152) Baba had the courage to face his fears and wrestled the "bears" he faced, but "in the end, a bear had come that he couldn't beat. But even then, he had lost on his own terms." (p.152) This highlights the courageous man that Baba was, but with the revelation that Baba had fathered Hassan our perspective of Baba becomes skewed. However it cannot be denied that this indiscretion became his motivator to be a better man. He faced his indiscretion head on and pursued community based charity work to atone his sin. This in itself is a courageous act and for this reason, regardless of his initial motives, Baba's courage to face his indiscretion became a large factor in his personal development.

In contrast, Hosseini portrays the way in which cowardice shaped an individual. The courage of Hassan and Baba stand in stark contrast with Amir's cowardice. Amir's spinelessness and lack of courage shaped him as an individual on different levels. His inability to sacrifice himself for others or what he believed in, together with his inability to
