Peterson, Kodzo Gavua, Ciraj Rassool, 2015-03-02 Heritage work has had a uniquely wide currency in Africa s politics Secure within the pages of books encoded in legal statutes encased in glass display cases and enacted in the panoply of court ritual the artefacts produced by the heritage domain have become a resource for government administration a library for traditionalists and a marketable source of value for cultural entrepreneurs The Politics of Heritage in Africa draws together disparate fields of study history archaeology linguistics the performing arts and cinema to show how the lifeways of the past were made into capital a store of authentic knowledge that political and cultural entrepreneurs could draw from This book shows African heritage to be a mode of political organisation a means by which the relics of the past are shored up reconstructed and revalued as commodities as tradition as morality or as patrimony Oral history in South Africa Sekgothe Mokgoatšana, 2025-05-06 Colonial and apartheid era historical narratives in South Africa often disregard oral testimonies leaving significant gaps in understanding the country s rich and complex past This scholarly book explores the methodologies and ethics of oral history to address these omissions and to elevate oral testimonies as vital tools in historical scholarship This book brings together ten chapters authored by leading academics and researchers It critically examines how oral history methodologies can be contextualised within South Africa s diverse and multifaceted society Rather than focusing on Eurocentric approaches it emphasises the need to rethink the ethics and practices of oral history from an Afrocentric perspective Through its transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary lens spanning history indigenous knowledge studies museum and archival studies and folklore this book advocates for the recognition of interviewees as knowledge holders fostering meaningful exchanges rather than mere knowledge extraction The authors emphasise the need to protect and expand oral history archives ensuring the representation of marginalised voices and redressing past injustices With original research this volume sheds light on the transformative potential of oral history in South Africa offering new arguments and perspectives It aims to inspire scholars researchers and specialists to rethink conventional practices and to bridge the divide between written and oral histories This is essential literature for scholars and practitioners in history oral history theology museum studies and related fields as it reimagines the role of oral testimonies in producing inclusive and credible historical narratives African Perspectives of King Dingane kaSenzangakhona Sifiso

Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2017-08-06 This book examines the active role played by Africans in the pre colonial production of historical knowledge in South Africa focusing on perspectives of the second king of amaZulu King Dingane It draws upon a wealth of oral traditions izibongo and the work of public intellectuals such as Magolwane kaMkhathini Jiyane and Mshongweni to present African perspectives of King Dingane as multifaceted and in some cases constructed according to socio political formations and aimed at particular audiences By bringing African perspectives to the fore this innovative historiography centralizes indigenous African languages in the production of historical knowledge Landscape of Memory Sabine Marschall, 2009-12-14 Under the aegis of the post apartheid government much emphasis has been placed on the transformation and democratisation of the heritage sector in South Africa since 1994 The emergent new landscape of memory relies heavily on commemorative monuments memorials and statues aimed at reconciliation nation building and the creation of a shared public history But not everyone identifies with these new symbolic markers and their associated interpretation of the past Drawing on a number of theoretical perspectives this book critically investigates the flourishing monument phenomenon in South Africa the political discourses that fuel it its impact on identity formation its potential benefits and most importantly its ambivalences and contradictions Intermediaries, Interpreters, and Clerks Benjamin N. Lawrance, Emily Lynn Osborn, Richard L. Roberts, 2006 Publisher description Holding Their Ground, 1989 Focus, 2001 Choice, 1999 Africa South & East, 1992 Drum, 2003 IsiZulu South Africa.
