January 2011 G1 Paper:

Quakers and Their Allies in the Abolitionist Cause, 1754-1808 Maurice Jackson, Susan Kozel, 2016-03-17 This volume explores the significant connections between the Quaker community and the abolitionist cause in America. The case studies that make up the collection mainly focus on the greater Philadelphia area, a hotbed of the abolitionist movement and the location of the first American abolition society founded in 1775. Despite the importance of Quakers to the abolitionist movement, their significance has been largely overlooked in the existing historiography. These studies will be of interest to scholars of slavery and abolition, religious history, Atlantic studies, and American social and political history.

Women on Corporate Boards and in Top Management Colette Fagan, Maria González Menéndez, Silvia Gómez Ansón, 2012-05-09 This book examines the international trends and associated developments in gender equality policy, including corporate governance such as gender quotas. International comparative analysis is combined with detailed analysis of eight European countries with different policy regimes and trajectories.

Small Arms Survey 2012 Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (Geneva, Switzerland), Small Arms Survey, Geneva, 2012-08-30 The Small Arms Survey 2012 seeks to increase our scrutiny of what is changing and not changing in relation to armed violence and small arms proliferation. Chapters on firearm homicide in Latin America and the Caribbean, drug violence in selected Latin American countries, and non-lethal violence worldwide illustrate that security is a moving target; armed violence, both lethal and non-lethal, continues to undermine the security and wellbeing of people and societies around the world. The goal of curbing small arms proliferation embodied in the UN Programme of Action appears similarly elusive. Chapters on illicit small arms in war zones, trade transparency, Somali piracy, and the 2011 UN Meeting of Governmental Experts highlight some of the successes but also the continuing challenges in this area. Country studies on Kazakhstan and Somaliland, along with the final instalment of the authorized transfers project, round out the 2012 edition.

Luis Cruz Azaceta Alejandro Anreus, 2014 Cuban American artist Luis Cruz Azaceta addresses what author Alejandro Anreus calls the wounds and screams of the human condition. Although Cruz Azaceta's work is extensively exhibited and widely collected, this is the first book on the artist's life and creations. Anreus traces Cruz Azaceta's career and explores the themes that are the focus of his singular art. Anreus discusses how the Cuban diaspora, above all, has shaped the artist and how the experience of exile has found expression through starkly forceful self-portraiture in many of his works. Anreus also examines the artist's ongoing concern with current events. Cruz Azaceta has responded to national crises such as the AIDS epidemic, the Oklahoma City bombing, and the devastation of New Orleans by Hurricane Katrina with graphically powerful paintings, mixed media pieces, and installations. Over the past four decades, Cruz Azaceta has experimented with his visual vocabulary, moving from the flat pop style of his early canvases through neo Expressionism and into the abstraction of more current work His commentary on humanity however has not changed His art continues to remind us that there are no easy solutions to the
