Stranger at the Door Kristjana Gunnars, 2011-04-07 At the beginning of a new writing project whether it's the first page of a new novel or a less ambitious project writers often experience exhilaration fear or dread For Kristjana Gunnars the call of a new project is like someone you don't know knocking on your door you either choose to let the person in or not It's both exciting and dangerous to start a new manuscript This book is an engagement with that stranger called writing Creative or imaginative writing is a complex process that involves more than intellect alone Writers make use of everything their sensibilities history culture knowledge experience education and even their biology These essays seek out and gather into a discussion what writers have said about their own experiences in writing Although the writers are from around the world and of very different backgrounds the commonality of their remarks brings home the realization that writers everywhere are grappling with similar problems with the seemingly simple problems of when where why and what to write but also larger questions such as the relationship between writer and society or issues of privacy appropriation or homelessness While none of these questions can be definitively answered they can be fruitfully discussed Originating as questions posed in creative writing seminars these essays have grown into companion texts for both writers and readers who want to participate in a conversation about what writers do

Creative Manoeuvres Shane Strange, Jen Webb, 2014-07-24 Creative Manoeuvres is a collection of new writings on a topic of enduring interest the role of creative practice in the formation of knowledge The contributors to this collection are primarily creative writers working in poetry fiction nonfiction and ethnography Many include the visual or performing arts within their practice and all are academics as well as creative writers Their chapters move the study of creative writing beyond subjective accounts of how I write towards broader issues of how knowledge is addressed by or incorporated into or embodied in art Each chapter also does double duty as a case study on approaches to creative and research work both describing and critically exploring the strategies or creative manoeuvres these writers have adopted to advance their practice in both creative and critical domains In this way the book not only exemplifies moves in the contemporary academy to understand better the value creative practice can offer to the university but also provides a rich and engaging set of narratives about ways of being ways of making and ways of coming to know In both practical and theoretical modes it contributes to the ongoing questions about creativity and versus scholarship that have been debated over recent decades
