John Doerr Startup Manual:

The Hasidic Masters' Guide to Management Moshe Kranc, 2004 Combines Hasidic stories and parables along with the insightful cartoon satire of Dilbert as well as examples from the corporate world to create a readable and entertaining guide for both the novice and experienced manager

Working With Emotional Intelligence Daniel Goleman, 2011-12-07 Do you have what it takes to succeed in your career The secret of success is not what they taught you in school What matters most is not IQ not a business school degree not even technical know how or years of expertise The single most important factor in job performance and advancement is emotional intelligence Emotional intelligence is actually a set of skills that anyone can acquire and in this practical guide Daniel Goleman identifies them explains their importance and shows how they can be fostered For leaders emotional intelligence is almost 90 percent of what sets stars apart from the mediocre As Goleman documents it s the essential ingredient for reaching and staying at the top in any field even in high tech careers And organizations that learn to operate in emotionally intelligent ways are the companies that will remain vital and dynamic in the competitive marketplace of today and the future

Competing On Internet Time David B. Yoffie, Michael A. Cusumano, 1998-11-16 Competing on Internet time means competitive advantage can be won and lost overnight In this penetrating analysis of strategy making and product innovation in the dynamic markets of commercial cyberspace bestselling Microsoft Secrets co author Michael Cusumano and top competitive strategy expert David Yoffie draw vital lessons from Netscape the first pure Internet company and how it has employed the techniques of judo strategy in its pitched battle with Microsoft the world s largest software producer From on site observation and more than 50 in depth interviews at Netscape and other companies Cusumano and Yoffie construct a blueprint meticulously detailing how the fastest growing software company in history has competed on Internet time by moving rapidly to new products and markets staying flexible and exploiting leverage that uses the weight of its giant rival Microsoft against it The main source of Netscape s leverage they argue has been its skill in designing products that run on multiple operating systems Microsoft has responded with judo techniques in kind Managers in every high tech industry will discover a wealth of new ideas on how to create and scale up a new company quickly how to compete in fast paced unpredictable industries and how to design products for rapidly evolving markets The lessons that Cusumano and Yoffie derive from Netscape s contest with Microsoft go far beyond start ups and Internet software Small companies in any industry and powerful established firms alike will welcome the principles the authors formulate from this David and Goliath like struggle Competing on Internet Time is essential and instructive reading for all managers engineers and entrepreneurs who want to succeed in ultra fast paced markets
