Light Years Caroline Woodward,2015-09-05 In 2007 Caroline Woodward was itching for a change With an established career in book selling and promotion four books of her own and having raised a son with her husband Jeff she yearned for adventure and to re ignite her passion for writing Jeff was tired of piecing together low paying part time jobs and with Caroline s encouragement applied for a position as a relief lightkeeper on a remote North Pacific island They endured lonely months of living apart but the way of life rejuvenated Jeff and inspired Caroline to contemplate serious shifts in order to accompany him When a permanent position for a lighthouse keeper became available Caroline quit her job and joined Jeff on the lights Caroline soon learned that the lighthouse keeping life does not consist of long empty hours in which to write The reality is hard physical labour long stretches of isolation and the constant threat of de staffing Beginning with a 3 30 a m

weather report the days are filled with maintaining the light station buildings sea sampling radio communication beach cleanup wildlife encounters and everything in between As for dangerous rescue missions or dramatic shipwrecks that kind of excitement is rare So far the only life I know I've saved is my own she says with her trademark dry wit Yet Caroline is exhilarated by the scenic coastline with its drizzle and fog seabirds and whales and finds time to grow a garden and as anticipated write Told with eloquent introspection and an eye for detail Light Years is the personal account of a lighthouse keeper in twenty first century British Columbia an account that details Caroline's endurance of extreme climatic interpersonal and medical challenges as well as the practical and psychological aspects of living a happy healthy useful and creative life in isolation
