

AP Microeconomics

Unit 1: Basic Economic Concepts

Unit 1.1: Scarcity and Choice

Economics is the study of _____ and _____. A scarce resource is not available in sufficient quantities to satisfy all the various ways a society wants to use it. In other words, the amount of a good or service available is less than the amount desired by society. As a result of this scarcity, individuals must make _____. When weighing these choices, individuals consider the _____, which are the alternative choices that could be made.

Any given country's economy has four resources referred to as the _____. These include land (directly from nature like plants, water, or minerals), labor, capital (manufactured goods used to make other goods or services like machinery or tools), and entrepreneurship.

When choosing which resource to prioritize, an individual will consider all _____ options. The value of the next best alternative is known as an _____.

_____ is the study of how individuals, households, and firms make decisions. It differs from _____, which focuses on the bigger picture – overall up and down that impact the entire economy.

Economic analysis is used to answer questions about the way an economy works. Statements that are definitively right or wrong are considered _____. Conversely, _____ statements use economic analysis to prescribe how an economy should work.
